Warden Fred R. Dickson, Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos, Coroner Frank J. Keaton and other officers cluster on Marin Rod and Gun Club pier, pleading with two escaped San Quentin convicts to free a man and woman they are holding hostage. The convicts and their hostages may be dimly seen at the end of the pier. (Independent-Journal photo)

TWO CONVICTS HOLD PAIR AT KNIFEPOINT

Trapped On Pier, They Threaten To Kill Hostages

A pair of escaped convicts held a woman hostage at knife-point on the end of the Marin Rod and Gun Club pier today, and used her elderly companion as messenger boy, while armed peace officers stood powerless to intervene.

The pair, William W. Werner, 24, and Billy Joe Wright, 26, fled work details outside the prison walls a few minutes before 9 a.m.

At 9:15 a.m., they were trapped on the Rod and Gun Club pier by officers who sped into action with sounding of an alarm at 8:55.

But four hours later, they still held their hostages. Mrs. Louise Gschwand of 754 Thirty-eighth avenue, San Francisco, and Douglas Harrison, a house guest of the Gschwands. They threatened death to the woman if officers did not allow them to escape from the pier.

The combined might of federal, state and county governments kept its distance, on the pier and in the water of the bay, lest the two escapees carry out their threat to kill the woman.

They were armed with bait knives, snatched from someone's fishing gear at the pier before the law closed in.

There was no boat within their reach. But they sent word by their elderly male hostage that they had keys to a car.

"Let us get away, or we kill the woman," was the word they sent.

Warden Fred R. Dickson, in command of the little army of prison officers, sheriff's deputies, San Rafael police and highway patrolmen at the scene, declared:

"They are holding knife constantly at the woman's throat. They are very excited and very emotional."

"The only thing that would result from rushing in would be injury to the woman."

Offshore, two Coast Guard boats rode the waves, carrying machine guns. They, too, held their fire.

The bay was thronged with surface craft—pleasure boats and craft participating in a search for an F104 Starfighter missing after it started its approach to Hamilton Air Force Base last night. Some of them formed a ring around the 200-foot long, T-shaped pier that juts from the end of the Rod and Gun Club property.

On shore, crowds of the curious were kept far back. Warden Dickson, Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos and a little knot of other officers remained about 100 feet from the pier's end, where the framework of the pier's "T" kept partially hidden the two escapees and their helpless hostages.

A Coast Guard helicopter hovered over the scene.

Warden Dickson said the escaped convicts had taken the keys to the Gschwand car from either the woman or the man.

As the drama played on hour after hour, with no break in the tension, the woman captive became ill. Watchers with the little knot of officers, and news-men kept at a check point farther back on the pier, could see

Twin Cities Merger Study Reports Show Sharp Split

Corte Madera Finds No Value, Asks New Data

Consolidation of Larkspur and Corte Madera would be "disadvantageous to the people of Corte Madera" if based on a merger report prepared by Public Affairs Research, Inc. This is the conclusion reached by Corte Madera's Merger Study Committee in a report filed with the town council after more than six months of almost weekly meetings.

"The subject of consolidation is important and far-reaching," the committee declared, "and before concluding this issue irrevocably the committee feels that additional, more complete data and information should be collected and analyzed by an independent agency and submitted to the citizen committee for further study and report."

Town councilmen discussed the report briefly last night after receiving a letter from the Larkspur City Council suggesting both councils ask William R. Zion, manager of Public Affairs Research, for more up-to-date figures on the proposed merger.

RECOMMENDATION DUE The Larkspur letter was referred to the Corte Madera committee for a recommendation, to be submitted at or before the time its report is placed on the council agenda.

Wording its report in the form of a resolution, the Corte Madera committee stressed that its findings were based solely on Zion's 1958 report, which uses figures for 1957.

The committee made these findings:

1. Consolidation would result in no improvement of police service in Corte Madera.

FIRE SERVICE 2. Fire protection service would not be improved.

3. "There would be no improvement in the field of building inspection."

4. A municipal library, such as Larkspur's, would provide better library service.

5. Boundary problems between the two municipalities, as now constituted, would be eliminated, but unincorporated islands contributing to these problems would remain.

6. While both cities have street deficiencies, the Zion report

Corte Madera Names Morse New Mayor

Corte Madera last night gained a new mayor, vice mayor and police officer, but lost its veteran town auditor.

Roger F. Morse is the new mayor; Edward W. Colthurst, the new vice mayor, and Charles Newman, the new police officer. The departed auditor is Charles Black, who resigned in the wake of criticism.

Larkspur Urges Fast Go-Ahead

Finding merit in the proposal to consolidate Larkspur and Corte Madera, the Larkspur Merger Study Committee last night adopted a final report recommending the question be submitted to the voters as soon as possible.

Winding up a study which began last fall, the committee urged the Larkspur City Council to (1) authorize City Atty. Samuel W. Gardiner to prepare "the necessary petitions for our use" and (2) ask Public Affairs Research, Inc., to prepare a brochure on the merger proposal for public distribution.

The second request would have to be approved by both city councils, the report noted.

The Larkspur group based its findings for the most part on a 1958 merger report prepared by William R. Zion, manager of Public Affairs Research, for the two cities. But the citizens committee also did some improvising of its own in an effort to obtain more precise data.

"While our study of the question of consolidation has indicated a much greater immediate monetary gain on the part of Corte Madera," the committee

Ark Dwellers Get Respite, But It's Only Temporary

Sausalito ark dwellers encroaching on underwater Mono street may get a temporary respite if they put in proper sewage disposal facilities, but they will still be living on borrowed time, City Atty. John B. Ehlen declared today.

Ehlen said he intends to go ahead with the long-range goal of clearing city streets (underwater) of all arks that are encroaching. He hopes the case will come to trial in a month or two.

Sausalito's primary concern is pollution from dumping of raw sewage into the waters, the city attorney said. This matter came up for hearing before Judge Thomas F. Keating of Marin Superior Court.

"If immediate arrangements are made for sewage disposal, the council might permit the arks to remain temporarily, provided the owners put up performance bonds guaranteeing that the arks will be removed after a specified period," Ehlen declared. "They have no right to encroach on city streets for an indefinite period."

The judge gave ark dwellers two weeks to connect their sewers with a suitable disposal system.

Pollution is the immediate concern, Ehlen pointed out. But the ark dwellers cannot stay forever. Even if sewer disposal is worked out, he intends to press the suit for permanent removal of arks from city streets.

EXECUTION BAN FAILS IN ASSEMBLY

SACRAMENTO — The state Assembly today defeated a proposal to ban legal executions in California for an eight-year trial period.

The vote was 43 to 35 against the controversial bill.

Assemblyman Lester A. McMillan (D-Los Angeles), author of the bill, declared that the death penalty was not a deterrent to murder. He said experience in states which have abolished capital punishment shows more convictions are possible with less delay.

EXECUTES POOR

McMillan said of the 300 to 400 homicides in California each year, only "some eight people are selected to die." He said that in a large number of cases, the state executes the poor and members of minority groups.

"This makes the death penalty a mockery of justice," he said.

TELLS OF CASES

He recited a list of murder cases, with grim details, and asked:

"Are we trying to protect the likes of persons like these?"

MacBride said, too, that "if one additional murder of an innocent man, woman or child is caused by repeal of the death penalty, then the risk is too great."

Supporting repeal, Assemblyman Charles B. Garrigus (D-Reedley) asserted that life is sacred and that the state has no right to take another life.

'SOFT TREATMENT'

Assemblyman Bruce F. Allen (R-Los Gatos) charged that the people of this state are being subjected to a well-organized campaign to give soft treatment to criminals, and abolition of the death penalty is one aspect of this campaign.

The bill proposed to provide life imprisonment for anyone convicted of a capital crime during the eight-year moratorium period.

Assemblyman Richard H. McCollister (R-San Rafael) voted against the bill. Two years ago he voted for a six-year moratorium, but based his vote today on the lack of a clause in the bill which would allow death sentences for prisoners serving life terms who are involved in assaults.

HAFB Starfighter Lost; Pilot Is Father Of Seven

RAYMOND M. MOECKEL
Flying father of seven

An air, ground and water search was under way today for an F104 Starfighter and its pilot, missing since it lost radio contact with Hamilton Air Force Base at 8:18 p.m. yesterday.

Several reports of a "ball of fire" in the air over San Pablo Bay last night led to fears the plane had burst into flames and crashed in the bay.

Hamilton Air Force Base officials said, however, the "balls of fire" probably were flares dropped by search planes.

FATHER OF SEVEN

Piloting the Starfighter was Capt. Raymond M. Moeckel, 42, of Hamilton's 83rd Fighter Interceptor Squadron, Novato resident and father of seven children. He is a veteran of 15 years service in the Air Force and a combat veteran of the Korean War.

Officials at Hamilton said Captain Moeckel was returning from a night training flight and had entered the regular "Pt Reyes-Petaluma approach pattern" to Hamilton.

He radioed a report that he was in the pattern and starting to descend from 18,000 feet at 8:18. No more was heard from him.

Several persons reported seeing a flash of fire over the bay at about 10 p.m. Mr. and Mrs. Donald Madden of Guide Dogs for the Blind, driving on Highway 101 at about 9:30, reported seeing a ball of fire falling through the sky toward the bay.

FIREBALL VANISHES

The Maddens said the fireball looked like a burning plane. It disappeared by the time they were able to turn around for another look. The couple were driving near the Terra Linda turnoff when the fireball appeared.

Officials at Hamilton said

Ex-Police Chief Kelly May Get City Post

Outgoing Police Chief Frank Kelly, 58, may be in line for a San Rafael City job—anywhere from assistant city manager to supervisor of the parking district or collector of business and contractors' licenses.

This possibility arose last night as city councilmen agreed that Kelly's 16 years as police chief and his knowledge of the city would be a valuable asset to the administration. But city fathers disagreed sharply on what his job should be.

TO DISCUSS HIRING

The councilmen agreed to meet at 5 p.m. tomorrow in the city hall to discuss the possible hiring of Kelly and his duties and salary.

Mayor John F. McInnis disclosed that Kelly, whose job as police chief ended last night, is still on the city payroll as "parking meter supervisor."

As police chief, Kelly drew $525 salary plus a $75 car allowance. On top of that, the councilmen had authorized a payment of $150 per month to Kelly as parking meter supervisor. Even though he no longer draws the chief's salary, Kelly still gets $150 monthly as parking meter supervisor until the council votes otherwise, the mayor pointed out.

ASKS ASSISTANCE

Possibility of a new city job for Kelly came up last night when City Manager Dan E. Andersen asked for assistance in his office.

Councilman Louis H. Baar suggested that Kelly be made assistant city manager to take

New President For Senior Council

Resignation of Harry Butterworth as president of the Marin Senior Coordinating Council was announced today.

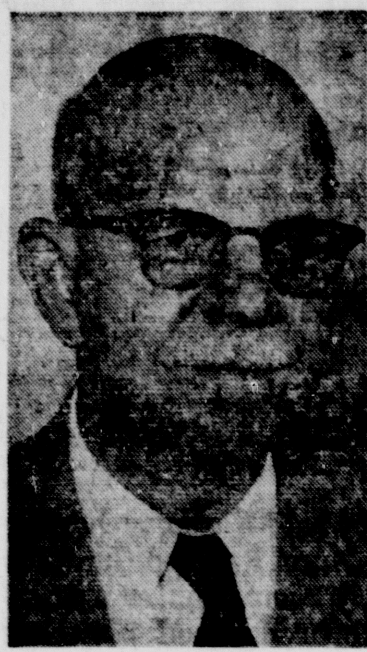

Directors of the council named Dr. George M. Landrock of Greenbrae as president to succeed the San Rafael wholesale tobacconist.

Butterworth said his resignation was forced by the pressure of business. The council board expressed regret at his decision and paid tribute to his work over the past six years in organizing facilities for Marin's senior citizens, and particularly to his skill in financing ventures. He was treasurer of the council for five years before assuming the presidency this year.

Landrock has been first vice president, a post in which he will be succeeded by Mrs. Caroline Rose.

Landrock will take over his new duties next week.

"Harry Butterworth was a very important part of the Marin County senior movement, and we all regret deeply that it was necessary for him to resign," said Landrock. "It will be hard for me to follow him and carry out the program he has so ably started."

Dr. Landrock, also long active in the seniors' movement, is a physician and surgeon practicing in San Rafael.

Town Approves Pact On Road Extension

The Corte Madera Town Council last night approved the terms of a revised agreement with Charles L. Paganini for extension of Tamal Vista drive through his unincorporated 14-acre "island."

The vote was 4-1. Councilman Walter S. Long dissenting. Long said he was not fully agreed of the position taken by several hundred area residents who have bitterly opposed the road extension.

Councilmen rejected a request by several opponents for referral of the agreement to the state attorney general's office for an opinion as to legality.

Town Atty. John B. Ehlen said he has "no doubt about the legality—none at all."

The agreement, yet to be approved by Paganini, calls for the road to be built by the state Division of Highways to connect with Fifer avenue, then deeded to the town.

Any portion of the "island" which Paganini developed would be annexed to Corte Madera. He would agree to notify the council 10 days before applying to the county planning commission for a development use permit.

The council deleted a vehicle weight limit from the agreement, substituting a condition making the road extension subject to town regulations.

Girl Breaks Collarbone

Kathleen Boomer, 11-year-old San Anselmo girl, tumbled from her bicycle in front of 155 Sir Francis Drake boulevard yesterday and suffered a broken collarbone. She was taken to Marin General Hospital by San Anselmo Police Officer Andy Grimes. The child's mother is Mrs. Virginia Miller of 30 Van Hooten Court, San Anselmo, secretary at the Loma Verde School, Ignacio.

Assembly Kills Drunk Test

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Legislation to set up a precise drunk driving test by means of a blood sampling was rejected by the Assembly yesterday in an overwhelming vote.

The house sent the measure by Assemblyman Louis Francis (R-San Mateo) back to the Criminal Procedure Committee by a 52-20 vote, in effect dumping it for this session.

The bill required that a driver be presumed drunk if he had .15 per cent alcohol in his blood.

"This is a substitution of a presumption of guilt for the constitutional presumption of innocence," said Assemblyman Jerome R. Waldie (D-Antioch), opposing the bill.

Francis argued the bill is a "two-edged sword, providing a presumption of innocence as well as of guilt."

The measure did not make the tests mandatory.

$3 Leeway In Tax Figuring Approved

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—A bill to allow individuals a $3 mistake in their state income taxes was approved by the Senate Revenue and Taxation Committee.

The measure was introduced by Sen. Luther Gibson (D-Vallejo) who said that the present $1 permissible error is not realistic. "It costs much more than that just to do the paper work," Gibson said.

Planners' Speaker Fails To Show Up

The Belvedere Planning Commission last night took up a variety of small matters during an hour and one half wait for the evening's speaker, Milton Tonini, to outline his proposed Tiburon breakwater development.

Tonini never showed up. Among other business, the planners set aside for study proposed state legislation setting up a state planning advisory committee to assist local planning commissions.

Swimming Pool Too Close To Sewer Must Go

San Rafael city councilmen, in a 3-to-2 decision, cracked down last night on a contractor who built a swimming pool too close to a city sewer line.

The move could be the forerunner of a general trend to clamp down on infractions of city rules that have been prevalent in the past.

Contractor D. M. Christensen put in a swimming pool for Steve Metcho at 19 Chestnut street. Two weeks ago, Public Works Supt. Norris Rawles and Building Inspector Clifford Monk reported the pool was too close to a city sewer line.

PROMISED WALL

Christensen said he had made a mistake, but would put in a concrete wall to protect the sewer line. He promised to present plans to Rawles so that a recommendation could be made last night on how to solve the problem.

But last night Rawles reported the contractor had not presented a suitable plan for the concrete wall.

Metcho's neighbor, George Franzman, was present last night as well as two weeks ago to ask for protection from possible slide or damage to the sewer line. Franzman's home is below the swimming pool.

Councilman Fred E. Jensen and Louis H. Baar wanted to give the contractor more time to work it out. But Mayor John F. McInnis declared the contractor had been given enough consideration. He pointed out Christensen failed to present a plan and was not present last night.

LEGAL STEPS

Councilman Charles W. Aby moved that legal steps be taken to remove the encroachment. Councilman Joseph E. Sauer, who has indicated in the past few meetings that he is "fed up" with violations and indifference on the part of violators, promptly seconded the motion.

Jensen and Baar voted against the action.

In other action last night, the city council:

1. Decided to buy four police cars from Ames Ford Co. which turned in a bid about $900 lower than the closest competitor. With a trade-in of old police cars, Ames offered four new cars with standard shift for $3,569.97, Buena Lincoln-Mercury bid $4,404.87 on Edsels with standard shift, and DeLong Chevrolet bid $5,023.44. Automatic shift would raise the price in each case by about $561. The police department was given the choice of getting either standard or automatic shift.
2. Postponed action on Plombo and Bresnan's request for an additional $3,644.50 for the Fifth avenue storm drain job. Plombo and Bresnan is doing the job for $60,784. Arthur Bresnan said the specifications on part of the back fill were ambiguous.
3. Suspended until June 1 abatement proceedings against San Rafael Joe's Restaurant building at 913-915 Fourth street. Aaron and Carl Schwartz, who own the building, petitioned for a postponement because they have reached an agreement with Hector and Theresa Rubini, operators of Joe's, to close the restaurant by May 31. The Schwartzes plan to remodel the building.
4. O. H. Somers of 19 Wolfe avenue complained that city sprays used on trees has killed a dog and made other animals ill. Public Works Supt. Norris Rawles said health officials have found the spray safe. It is a private homes. Rawles announced he would resume spraying against fungus on ash trees in Bret Harte and Sun Valley today.
5. Library Trustees Robert Menzies, Col. L. B. C. Jones and Mrs. Eleanor G. Murray were re-appointed by the mayor for four more years.
6. Miss Joan Castrillon of Sausalito was hired as draftsman-secretary for the city planner at $375 per month. City Manager Dan E. Andersen reported that Mrs. Loma Miller of the building inspector's office will quit next month because she is expecting a child. This means one vacancy will be created. Mrs. Lorraine Wren, who is now secretary in the city planner's office, could then fill in the vacancy created, the city manager said.
7. Public Works Director Rawles was authorized to offer 5 per cent more pay in his attempt to recruit a junior engineer and a draftsman. Top pay for the two posts is now $524 and $483, respectively.

EVER HAPPEN TO YOU?

Corte Madera Sets Hearing On Park Plan

A public hearing on a precise plan for Corte Madera's town park was set by the town council last night for May 18 at 8 p.m.

The town planning commission has recommended adoption of a development plan prepared by the landscape architectural firm of Royston, Hanamoto and Mayes.

Under the proposal, the 22 acres of park property surrounding the Corte Madera Recreation Center would contain recreational facilities for all age groups.

Turning to other business, the council endorsed recommendations by Town Manager Arthur H. Brandon concerning property exchanges required for construction of a concrete drainage control structure at the Lucky drive extension to Redwood High School.

The minor exchanges would involve the Tamalpais Union High School District, the town and Schultz Investment Co. All are parties to the Lucky Drive Assessment District, which would build the drainage structure. On completion of the work, the town would pay $15,558 to the special district.

Councilmen left it up to the school board to call a meeting on Brandon's recommendations.

In other matters last night, the Corte Madera council:

1. Approved Brandon's recommended procedure for dedication to the town of a drainage easement covering all of the nine-acre Lagoon No. 1 in Madera Gardens, a portion of Corte Madera low canal and a large section of Corte Madera high canal. Brandon said the owners, H. C. (Josh) Billings, Jack Reniz, Olaf Johnson and Ralph Tobener, have insisted on retaining exclusive recreational rights to the lagoon. The council ruled out the word "exclusive." It said the deed could specify that the lagoon remain "as a body of water for an impounding area and for recreational use."
2. Awarded the Overhead Door Co. a $730 contract for replacement of the town firehouse doors, damaged recently by a runaway car. The damage is covered by insurance.
3. Set for 7:30 p.m. May 4 a public hearing on Tidewater Oil Co.'s application for a permit to build a service station at the entrance to the Pifer industrial tract.
4. Approved, in principle, the idea of a countywide garbage disposal franchise, provided it would neither abrogate the town's present hauling agreement with Mill Valley Garbage Co. nor result in a rate increase.
5. Gave conditional approval to the tentative map of a three-lot subdivision proposed for the Joseph A. Vowels property on Manzanita avenue.
6. Miss Joan Castrillon of Sausalito was hired as draftsman-secretary for the city planner at $375 per month. City Manager Dan E. Andersen reported that Mrs. Loma Miller of the building inspector's office will quit next month because she is expecting a child. This means one vacancy will be created. Mrs. Lorraine Wren, who is now secretary in the city planner's office, could then fill in the vacancy created, the city manager said.
7. Public Works Director Rawles was authorized to offer 5 per cent more pay in his attempt to recruit a junior engineer and a draftsman. Top pay for the two posts is now $524 and $483, respectively.

Petaluma Crash Hurts Novatan

A Novato woman suffered minor injuries in a weekend traffic accident in Petaluma involving three cars.

Robert F. Corda, 22, of 5024 Novato avenue, Novato, was driving east on Bodega avenue at High street in Petaluma Sunday when his car hit a parked auto belonging to Glen F. Pardue of Hamilton Air Force Base. Petaluma police reported. The Pardue car was knocked into another parked auto, belonging to Sally R. Corda of Petaluma.

Two passengers in the Novato car, Mrs. Jelinda Corda, wife of the driver, and Ann Petersen of Petaluma, suffered minor injuries. Corda was cited for speeding.

Bill To Abolish Special Fair Fund Goes To Assembly

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—The Assembly Ways and Means Committee has cleared for action on the lower house floor a measure abolishing the special fund which finances California's fairs.

Assemblyman Thomas M. Rees (D-Los Angeles), author of the approved plan, told the committee his measure would do away with the fund and force the fairs to submit their budgets to the Legislature like other state departments.

The fair fund is fed by money from the state tax on pari-mutuel horse race betting.

"I like fairs," Rees said, "but I don't like special funds." Gov. Edmund G. Brown proposed abolition of the fund in his budget message to the Legislature.

Rees said passage of his bill wouldn't hurt "efficient, well run fairs." But he said inefficient operations might have trouble justifying their budgets.

Wolfe Grade School Bid Well Over Estimate

A low bid of $142,343—about $35,000 over the architect's estimate—for the construction of a six-classroom Wolfe Grade School was submitted last night to Kentfield School District trustees by Herrero Brothers of San Francisco.

The two Herrero brothers, George, who lives in Greenbrae, and Jack, who lives in Manor, were low bidders in a field of four.

Midstate Construction Co. of San Francisco bid $143,000; A. Von Rotz of San Anselmo, $146,251, and Postmeier Co. of Petaluma, $150,720.

The bids were referred to the Local Allocation Division of the state Department of Finance in Sacramento. Architects Corlett and Spackman of San Francisco had estimated construction cost at $107,000.

Supt. Harold R. DePue reported to the Kentfield trustees on plans for assigning children when the Wolfe Grade School is completed next winter.

He suggested kindergarten through fifth grade, one class of each, at the new school. Greenbrae School will have kindergarten through sixth grade. All seventh and eighth graders in the district will attend A. E. Kent School. Kent School, which now has no fifth grade class, will have one next year as plans now stand.

In other business last night, the Kentfield School District trustees:

1. Appointed two new teachers for next year, Dorothy Villevik and Gabrielle Lohmberg; accepted five resignations; re-appointed 36 teachers on the present staff of 44.
2. Directed the superintendent to get the best deal possible in contracting for the district audit, either with the county schools' office or directly with a certified public accountant.
3. Endorsed a new coordinating committee for the county's four classes of mentally retarded youngsters between 50 and 75 I.Q.
4. Certified completion of two projects: a four-classroom addition and lavatory construction at Greenbrae School for $125,295 and purchase of the Wolfe Grade site for $68,544.

Authorized the county superintendent's office to handle absentee ballots for the Kentfield district bond proposal on May 19

The commission agreed to a planning staff recommendation that "evidence" that Safeway intends to build on the site, already zoned for commercial development, would be any or all of the following:

1. Removal of an existing residence on the property.
2. Start of construction of a proposed bridge connecting the site to South Novato boulevard.
3. Removal of a billboard from the property.
4. Application for a building permit for the store.

Chamber Stands Firm Against Park Proposal

The Marin Coast Chamber of Commerce reiterated its opposition to the proposed national recreation area at Pt. Reyes, notifying the county board of supervisors today that it will oppose federal appropriation of $10,000 to study the feasibility of the park proposal, unless the study is under control of the Marin County supervisors.

MAKING MANY FRIENDS

Castro Boosts Stock On Washington Visit

By BEN F. MEYER
WASHINGTON (AP) — It was not long ago that a lot of people around Washington regarded Fidel Castro as "just another of those Latin American revolutionaries." They thought he ought to go out and get himself a shave, and stop those executions in Cuba.

Today the bearded young man has a lot of new friends here, some in surprising places, who think he is sincere and is trying his best to do a good job for Cuba. They hope he'll carry out his promise of good government in the little republic long ridden by graft and dirty politics.

There are still some skeptics here, too, but they seem in the minority now. It may be because, as Castro puts it: "I did not come (sic) for money, but for friends, and to clear things about our revolution."

As he left Washington for the remainder of his two-week tour, he could look back on a good start.

He seemed to make friends, all right. Boys and girls screamed with delight whenever they saw him.

Grownups, in high places and elsewhere, said they got a much more hopeful viewpoint of what has happened in Cuba, and higher hopes for its future under Castro.

Even at the State Department, where there was a great deal of reserve about the bearded man who came to Washington without an official invitation, one observer said: "The guy makes a good showing. He handled himself well."

Castro did nearly all of his talking here to newsmen. He addressed two gatherings of newsmen, gave innumerable interviews between speeches, and made one appearance on a television news panel show—"Meet the Press."

Sometimes, he concedes, he does not say things as well as he would like. One of those times was when he said on the TV show that it might possibly be four years before elections could be held in Cuba.

It was the first time he had talked of elections so far in the future.

Talking with newsmen later, Castro himself introduced the topic of elections, and said he was "not happy—because I did not explain well." He bore down to explain that "I know it is hard to believe, but the people of Cuba do not want elections now." Cuban newsmen nodded their heads in vigorous support.

It will be the United States' first attempt to put a living creature into orbit.

Senate Group Gives Herter Quick Approval

WASHINGTON (AP) — Christian A. Herter won quick and unanimous approval of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee today to succeed John Foster Dulles as secretary of state.

The committee acted after hearing the 64-year-old Herter, who has been chief aide to the cancer-stricken Dulles, say the U.S. air route to Berlin will be defended but not necessarily at the risk of nuclear war.

BEFORE SENATE

Committee Chairman J. William Fulbright (D-Ark.) announced that the nomination of Herter would go before the full Senate later today if possible. Quick confirmation would allow Herter to take office before leaving this weekend for the Western foreign ministers meeting in Paris.

Herter had told the committee he did not believe atomic and hydrogen bombs would be justified in the early stages if war developed over Berlin.

But, Herter told the committee, "if it became clear that Russia was resorting to all-out war, I think we would have to consider a change in our position."

QUIZZED BY MORSE

Herter gave this view under prolonged questioning by Sen. Wayne Morse (D-Ore.) at a hearing in which the applause of other members suggested overwhelming approval of his nomination as secretary of state.

Herter said that "without any question" Congress should be consulted before this country entered all-out war. He added the reservation that such consultation could not hold up instant retaliation in the event of attack.

While most members of the committee contented themselves with complimentary speeches about Herter, Morse raised policy question.

Red China Accused Of Raids On Nepal, Killing Thousands

KATHMANDU, Nepal (AP) — A group of high Nepalese citizens accused Communist China today of invading this Himalayan mountain kingdom and "raiding, looting and torturing" Nepalese citizens.

They threatened to take action themselves to stop Chinese Communist atrocities if the government did not act. Sherpa tribesmen who brought the accusation to Kathmandu said the Communists had killed thousands of Nepalese.

Top Ballerina Under Arrest In Panama

PANAMA (AP) — The Panamanian government held British ballerina Margot Fonteyn under arrest today in connection with charges that her husband was plotting to overthrow President Ernesto de la Guardia Jr.

The 39-year-old ballet dancer, one of the world's greatest, was reported being held in the private office of the commandant of Panama city's main jail.

National Guard headquarters claimed that Miss Fonteyn's Panamanian husband, Roberto Arias, had landed Sunday night on Panama's Pacific Coast with about 10 armed men.

The National Guard, which is Panama's army and police, said Arias and his band were fleeing. Other reports said he had transferred from the motor launch in which he and his wife had been cruising and had landed near his family's large cattle ranch 75 miles west of the capital.

There was no immediate official reaction from the British Embassy, which had been busy until late Monday with the visit of Prince Philip.

WIRE NEWS BRIEFS From Everywhere

Admits Strangling Boy

DETROIT (AP) — Police said a man who escaped from a mental hospital admitted today he strangled Marvin Zdanowski, 5, whose body was found in a garage last night.

Lieut. Hiram Phipps of the Detroit homicide squad said the confession was obtained from George Ritola, 47, who resided intermittently with a sister residing in the same house with the boy's deaf mute parents.

Ritola was held for investigation of murder. Police said they picked him up for questioning because circumstances of the slaying indicated it was committed by some one who had a close knowledge of the house.

Phipps said Ritola gave no reason for the slaying.

Linda Asks Money

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Actress Linda Christian seeks $200,000 for her two children from the estate of her ex-husband, the late Actor Tyrone Power.

In addition to provisions for the children in his will, Power promised to set up a fund to support them under terms of the couple's 1955 divorce, Miss Christian claimed.

Power died of a heart attack last November at the age of 45. His will also provided for a third child, Tyrone William, born to his third wife, Deborah Anne Power.

Pianist On Mend

NEW YORK (AP) — Pianist Van Cliburn, who has been recovering from a bone infection in a hand was told yesterday he can resume his regular eight-hour-a-day practice.

He was forced to postpone several concerts after the infection, in his right middle finger, was discovered Feb. 18.

Historic Tree Falls

FAIRHOPE, Ala. (AP) — An old magnolia tree which legend says was used as a post office by Andrew Jackson was blown down by high winds yesterday.

Jackson supposedly used the tree during his campaigns of the War of 1812. The tree crashed through a home here. There were no injuries.

Death Penalty Passed

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — The Florida House of Representatives yesterday unanimously passed a bill calling for a maximum penalty of death for terrorist bombings.

The proposal also makes it a felony to make false reports of bomb threats.

Showgirl Was Rich

NEW YORK (AP) — Peggy Hopkins Joyce, blonde showgirl of the 20s, left an estate with a gross value of $525,096. She died June 12, 1957.

Russ Hunt Cone, Too

OSLO, Norway (AP) — The Soviet consul in Spitzbergen said today none of the 2,500 Russians living in the Norwegian Arctic islands has found any trace of the 160-pound capsule dropped by the Discoverer II satellite — perhaps suggesting that they are looking for it.

The Soviet statement was relayed by radio by Odd Birkvedt, Norse governor of the islands. It was the nearest thing there has been to Soviet reaction to reports that the Russians in Spitzbergen are trying to beat U.S. searchers to the capsule.

Esther Gets Decree

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Actress Esther Williams, 37, obtained a final divorce decree yesterday to end her 13-year marriage to producer Ben Gage.

The film star was awarded custody of the couple's three children, Benjamin, 9; Kimball, 8 and Susan, 5, in a settlement at the time she obtained her interlocutory decree March 8, 1958.

Queen Turns 33

WINDSOR, England (AP) — Queen Elizabeth II marked a lonely 33rd birthday today. Her husband, Prince Philip, is in Latin America on a world tour. Her mother and Princess Margaret are visiting Rome.

The queen's two children, Prince Charles and Princess Anne, are with her at Windsor Castle. But Charles has just recovered from the chicken pox and Anne is isolated after catching the disease on Saturday.

A few flags were flown but otherwise there were no public celebrations.

Robber Has Conscience

NORFOLK, Va. (AP) — Young Daniel W. Dough Jr. no longer faced the prospect of a jail term for attempted bank robbery today because the real would-be robber turned out to have a heart.

James Edward Anderson, 20, an ex-Navy man who is almost a double for Dough, came to the FBI yesterday and admitted it was he—not Dough—who tried to rob the Bank of Virginia here last Friday.

Anderson said his conscience had pestered him ever since Dough, 19, a newspaper copy boy, was arrested and charged with attempted robbery.

Police promptly exonerated Dough and held Anderson in jail in default of $2,000 bond.

Madame Tussaud's wax museum said it will show Macmillan's aging since his present likeness was put on display eight years ago.

Dalai Lama Arrives At Exile Home

MUSSOORIE, India (AP) — The Dalai Lama arrived today at this hilltop city and was given another thunderous welcome, by Buddhist followers and a group of American school children from a nearby mission school.

Mussoorie, 140 miles north of New Delhi, is 6,500 feet up in the foothills of the Himalayas. From his bedroom window the young god-king can see the snow-capped peaks of his native Tibet on the horizon.

He chose this place of exile because its climate is suited to one accustomed to the chilly heights of Tibet.

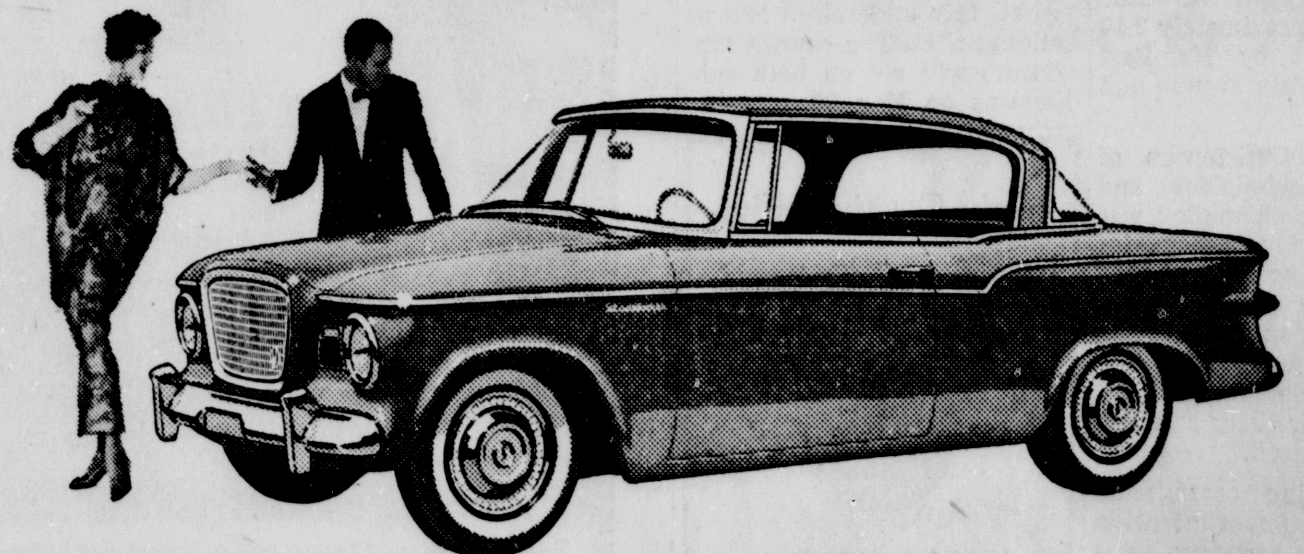

On Thursday the Dalai Lama will meet Indian Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru for the first time since Nehru granted him asylum after he fled the Chinese Communists and made a month-long trip to safety.

Dixie Board Reassured On City Annexation

Trustees of the Dixie School District were assured last night that the San Rafael City Council does not intend to change the school district boundaries even if the 1,000-acre Freitas ranch is annexed to the city.

But beyond that, nothing concrete can be promised, city councilmen told the trustees at a brief meeting.

The city has set for 8 p.m. May 4 a public-hearing on the proposed annexation of land that would extend San Rafael's boundaries to the ditch at Terra Linda.

E. E. Lenander, chairman of the Dixie School District board, said Dixie trustees are concerned with these four points:

1. Dixie School District wants to keep the school boundary unchanged. It plans to build a new intermediate school on the Freitas ranch just south of Terra Linda. If the annexation brings the area into the San Rafael School District, it would have to look for another site.

2. Dixie district is interested in having adequate recreation areas set aside. Lenander said he would like to see youngsters north of the Terra Linda ditch able to play with children south of the ditch, even if the ditch becomes the city boundary line.

3. Minimum lot size in Terra Linda is 7,500 square feet. If the city annexes the land, will lot sizes become smaller and population denser?

4. What fire and police protection will be provided?

Mayor John F. McInnis explained the annexation is not officially before the council until the first public hearing on May 4. The mayor said the council will try to make the new area a sensible place to live if annexed, but beyond that, nothing can be promised. Recreation areas, fire and police facilities will all depend on rapidity of population growth, the mayor said.

James Dahl, a Dixie trustee, said he understands nothing definite can be promised, but the district needs some idea of what is planned because all protests must be in before the May 4 hearing.

Duplex Subdivisions Approved For Lyford Cove, Novato

Two small subdivisions of duplexes were approved yesterday by the Marin County Planning Commission. One is in the Lyford Cove area of Tiburon, the other at Fourth and Olive streets in Novato.

Golden View Heights, the Tiburon subdivision of nine duplexes, is approximately 2.19 acres bounded by Mar East street, Linda Vista avenue and Paseo walk.

Douglas M. Christensen of San Rafael, subdivider and builder, said each duplex was planned with four spaces for offstreet parking. He was required by the planning commission to widen Linda Vista avenue to a 30-foot right of way with 20-foot-wide pavement, but no sidewalks or curbs and gutters were required.

The planning commission passed a resolution of intention to rezone the property to a duplex zone with architectural

Big Commercial Development Set In Novato

Plans for a multi-million-dollar commercial development for Novato, including a 250-unit motel, a 40-lane bowling alley and regulation sized ice and roller rinks, were unveiled yesterday before the Marin County Planning Commission by developer Rudy Lang Jr.

Commissioners approved a request by Montgomery Investment Co., which Lang heads, to rezone for commercial use a 10.7-acre strip adjoining the Cheda Ranch Shopping Center site at the northwest corner of Highway 101 and South Novato boulevard. The strip now is zoned "limited agricultural."

The commission also set a public hearing for May 18, to consider similar rezoning of a five-acre strip adjacent to the Lang property and Highway 101, owned by the state.

TO LEASE LAND

Lang told the commissioners he intends to lease the state-owned land immediately and eventually purchase it.

The commercial development would lie mainly on the 10.7 acres, with the state property serving mainly for landscaping and parking, he said.

The rezoning recommendation will be considered by the county board of supervisors at its meeting next Tuesday.

Planning Commissioner James Cuzner made the motion to rezone the 10.7 acres after Planning Director Mary Summers reported such a development would not commercial zoning in Novato proper.

Novato has two sites which are acceptable as regional shopping centers, she said. The one Lang envisions for the proposed development, and one a mile north between Highway 101 and South Novato boulevard, a 50-acre site which Lang has previously suggested be used for a regional shopping center.

START OF WORK

Lang told the Independent Journal that initial construction on the development at the Black Point cutoff site will begin as soon as he can obtain board of supervisors approval and a building permit.

The site eventually is also to contain three tennis courts, three badminton courts, archery lanes, a pitch-and-putt golf course, four swimming pools, a health studio and slenderizing salon, a nursery and children's playground and other recreational facilities, he said. Elwood Development Co. of San Francisco is associated with Montgomery Invest Co. in the project, Lang reported.

Birds of Paradise are found in their natural habitat at only two places on earth—their native New Guinea and at Bird-of-Paradise Island. The latter is a small island in the West Indies.

STOCKS TODAY

NEW YORK (AP)—Gains by selected blue chips helped boost the stock market irregularly higher late this afternoon. Trading was fairly active.

Volume for the day was estimated at 3,500,000 shares compared with 3,610,000 yesterday. A jumble of plus and minus signs prevailed among key stocks with movements ranging from fractions to a point generally.

Several blue chips forged ahead. Eastman Kodak spurred a half dozen points. Allied Chemical, Du Pont and U.S. Steel rose more than a point each. Moderate gains were posted for General Motors, Kennecott, General Electric, Westinghouse Electric, Liggett and Myers, American Tobacco and Southern Pacific.

Apartment Proposal Turned Down

Marin County Planning Commissioners yesterday turned down architectural plans of developer Kurt Heath for two 24-unit three-story apartment houses, proposed for construction south of Reed School road east of Tiburon boulevard in Tiburon.

Planners continued consideration of the project until such time as the developer comes up with a revised set of plans which will show the effect of a development there on the two adjacent parcels.

B. D. Dobbs, principal planner, also reported that such an apartment development cannot legally be allowed on the property without the developer first obtaining a variance.

Trustees Act To Hire Own Psychologist

The five trustees of the Kentfield School District voted unanimously last night to hire their own district psychologist next year if San Anselmo does the same, instead of contracting with the county superintendent's office for a consultant.

The Kentfield trustees voted to spend $4,000 next year for two and one-half days a week of a psychologist's time in place of this year's $5,850 contract for three days a week of a county consultant's time.

The San Anselmo trustees will act on a similar switch at their May 13 meeting.

Rezoning Asked For Tidelands Development

A plan for a commercial development, including an overwater restaurant and apartments, motel, boat harbor and recreational facilities, on 25 acres of tidelands west of the Richardson Bay Bridge, was outlined briefly yesterday before the Marin County Planning Commission.

A master plan for the development, proposed by Haarstick, Lundgren and Associates, Inc., of San Francisco, and bearing the name of Lt. Col. Tom Nowell of Mill Valley, will be given consideration at a public hearing May 4, planners decided.

The developers seek a rezoning of the area from its present "industrial" designation to "planned commercial district."

The county planning commission also:

1. Denied an adjustment to permit Ruth and Drago Bego to divide a 30,200-square-foot parcel south of Tiburon road, Tiburon Peninsula, into two building sites, which would have resulted in each site being less than the one-acre required for the area.

2. Approved the application of Thomasina Wilson to establish a "pony ring" on a three-acre parcel between San Geronimo Creek and Sir Francis Drake boulevard, Lagunitas. Planners, however, stipulated that the use permit be reviewed after one year, and that one off-street parking space be provided per pony.

3. Approved a resolution to amend the Red Hill Master Plan for development of property north of Tiburon boulevard between Reed School road and Mariner Oaks area, Tiburon, after hearing that the developer plans to reduce the number of homes to be built in the area. "It is gratifying to see a plan which has shown some respect for the land and the community," commented Commissioner Margaret Azevedo.

4. Carried until their May 8 meeting consideration of a request by the First Congregational Church to rezone a parcel of land at Merrydale and San Pedro roads from "suburban agricultural" to "multiple residential" to facilitate sale to an apartment builder. The delay was agreed upon after Dr. William F. Upton reported that study is under way to revise the zoning ordinance which controls multiple residence construction.

Trustees Act To Hire Own Psychologist

The Kentfield trustees by another unanimous action decided to drop a $500 county contract next year for a dental hygienist. No replacement is planned, said Supt. Harold R. DePue.

In a third budget decision, the Kentfield trustees tentatively decided to spend $1,800 to hire five persons for noon-time supervision of children, relieving teachers of this duty. The money would come from a special community services tax which this year is five cents per $100 assessed valuation. Next year's tax has not been calculated.

Co-partners in the television-radio sales and service firm are Frederick L. and Walter V. Ullner.

They will offer guaranteed service of all television makes and models and AM and FM radios, plus free tube checking and free estimates on repairs. They will also install TV antennas and design and build custom high fidelity speaker enclosures.

The sales department will carry RCA, Dumont and Motorola television sets and Telefunken, Sony and Granco AM and FM radios.

The Ullners also will make what they believe is the first offer of its kind in Marin County: A two-year bonded picture tube guarantee on all new RCA television sets.

NEW TRUCKS

All Channel TV Service has two spanking new service trucks. Requests for service may be made to the firm at any time, day or night. The store has a 24-hour telephone answering device on which customers may leave recorded messages.

Store hours will be 9:30 a.m. to 6 p.m. weekdays and Saturdays.

The Ullner brothers formerly were employed by Dexter's TV in Larkspur. Fred is service manager for three and one-half years and Walt as antenna crew chief for two and one-half years. Both are native San Franciscans.

HAM OPERATOR

Fred, 39, became interested in electronics at an early age. At 12 he was one of the youngest ham radio operators in the country. During World War II he was in the Army Signal Intelligence Service. He has been a television technician since the industry was in its infancy. He lives at 222 Kent avenue, Kentfield, with his wife, Nancy, and their three children.

Besides his work as a television antenna installer, Walt Ullner, 41, has had 20 years experience in cabinet making. With his interest in electronics, it was inevitable that he should turn his cabinet making ability to the design and construction of hi-fi speaker enclosures. Unmarried, he lives at 59 Vendola drive, Santa Venetia.

Teachers To Hear Parnow, Enemark Talk

Teachers and businessmen will hear two brief talks about Marin's growth at the opening session tomorrow of the ninth annual Business-Education Day in the San Rafael High School auditorium at 9:15 a.m.

San Rafael public schools will be closed for the day. William Parnow, president of the Marin Home Builders Assn., will describe the impact of the construction business on the economy of the county.

Fred F. Enemark, executive vice president and general manager of Marin County Savings and Loan Assn., will cover the subject of the overall growth in the county and will attempt to suggest where the growth pattern will take this trading area in the future.

Business-Education Day is a project of the education committee of the Greater San Rafael Chamber of Commerce, headed by attorney Peter Allen Smith. Other members of the committee include Frank Lucas, Dr. Mildred Barnard, Dr. Mark Hinton, Sarah Taylor, Joe Elliston, Herbert Walton and chamber director Leonard Murphy.

Glamorous despite rainy weather, Britain's Princess Margaret holds umbrella in one hand and reaches out with the other for greeting on arrival at Ciampino Airport near Rome. ### SCHOOL MOST INFLUENTIAL SAYS EDUCATOR

PROVIDENCE, R.I. (AP) — School has more influence on children than the home or church, in the opinion of Dr. Francis H. Horn, president of the University of Rhode Island. "The influence of the family, beyond purely hereditary factors is decreasing and I see no prospect of reversing the trend," he told an educational group. Dr. Horn said he considered a good nursery school more effective as an agent of education than a home.

Flames Rout 138 Girls At Mills College

OAKLAND (AP) — Fire in a Mills College residence hall routed 138 girls from the building just before dawn today. Among them was the granddaughter of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek, Amy Hsiachang Chiang, 21. No one was hurt as the girls fled from the smoke-filled hallways of Orchard-Meadows dormitory. They gathered on adjacent lawns as firemen put out the blaze. The fire started in an overstuffed chair in the library. Damage was estimated at $5,000. The library of 400 reference books was destroyed.

WEST POINT, N.Y. (AP) — West Point's corps of cadets yesterday saluted an old soldier on his 99th birthday. He is Maj. Gen. Henry Clay Hodges, Stamford, Conn., retired since 1921. He is the academy's oldest graduate, class of 1881. The 2,400 cadets sang "Happy Birthday" and presented him with a cake with 99 candles. They also gave him a cadet officer's saber.

Macmillan Backs Ike's Atom Disarm Proposal

LONDON (UPI) — Prime Minister Harold Macmillan has backed President Eisenhower's step-at-a-time nuclear disarmament plan in a personal letter to Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev, it was announced today. Eisenhower's proposal, made in an April 13 letter to Khrushchev, calls for an installment plan limitation of nuclear weapons tests. The first step would provide for a ban on tests in the atmosphere up to 30 miles above the earth, those which contribute most heavily to increases in radioactive fallout.

Khrushchev has not yet replied to the President, but news of his letter's existence was broken by the Russians yesterday at Geneva, where talks on nuclear test suspension are in progress. The text was then released by the White House without waiting, as is usual, for a Russian reply.

The British Foreign Office announced Macmillan's backing of the plan today.

It did not make public his text and did not say on what date he wrote, but indicated Macmillan's letter followed Eisenhower's and expressed agreement with the President's view.

The prime minister was said to have told Khrushchev that he agrees with Eisenhower's position that a limited agreement covering atmospheric tests would be desirable and useful if a more comprehensive agreement is not presently possible.

Eisenhower's new approach was this: Step around the current arguments, political and technical, over control of under-

Marin Ready For Fewer School Districts, But Not 1

We believe the County Committee on School District Organization acted wisely in dropping the proposed study of a countywide school merger.

Marin County has not yet amalgamated into a single unit. A countywide school district would take the schools too far away from the people of the various communities. These communities are not identical. Each has its own desires and aims in its educational programs.

But we do hope this will not discourage the committee from continuing its studies of school unification. We are sure it will not. Having 29 school districts in an area as small as Marin County is inexplicable.

This is particularly so in that the relationship between some of the elementary school districts and the high school district into which their children will go is tenuous to say the least. At times it appears non-existent.

It seems to us that unification of districts would make much more sense to most parents if they could see the direct connection between their elementary school and their high school and had a say in operation of both.

This would suggest not merely unification of elementary districts in, for example, mammoth Tamalpais Union High School District, but a division of that district into three or four smaller districts.

In this way the residents of Sausalito, for example, would have their say in electing one school board to govern both their elementary schools and the Tamalpais High School. But they would not be in danger of being outvoted by more numerous residents in the Ross Valley area.

The idea that an elementary school and a high school should be under the same control appeals strongly to us. The separation between elementary and secondary education is arbitrary at best. It isn't even consistent in various parts of the state.

So we hope that the school district organization committee will keep at its laborious, and usually unappreciated work of seeking the best method of educating our children. We may not say so often, but we do appreciate what they are trying to do.

An Obituary For A Bad Bill

We are happy to write the obituary for one of the bills which was strongly pushed in Sacramento.

This was a proposal to allow peace officers to use evidence in narcotics cases regardless of how that evidence was obtained.

We deplore the narcotics traffic and will back every legal means available to fight it. But permitting officers to break the law is not our idea of a legal means.

Of all the people in the country, officers should be the most scrupulous in observing the law. If they were to be allowed to enter a home illegally to search for narcotics, it would only be a matter of time until they could come right in whenever they wanted.

We compliment the State Senate for killing the bill.

STICK TO THE TRUTH

Cheating among college students is widespread, according to a survey taken in a midwestern college and published in "School and Society" magazine.

Of the students questioned 57 per cent admitted cheating at one time or another during their college careers. 75 per cent owned up to doing so during their senior year.

According to the survey, the growth in cheating is due to an over-all breakdown in the old moral code. The study stated: "One passes or one does not depending on his ability to beat the testing system. The system becomes a kind of game in which the professor has certain techniques and devices and the student has counter moves. Cheating has been used as one of those."

A few will always defy the laws of God and Man. But the problem becomes truly serious when dishonesty is regarded as acceptable by the majority.

Help reverse this demoralizing trend by being scrupulously honest yourself. This will encourage others to be the same.

"You shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free." (John 8:32)

Strengthen me, O my Savior, when I am tempted to depart from the truth.

One-Man Idea Factory Glamorizes Shoe Polish—Makes It Smell Good

NEW YORK (AP) — "It isn't enough to have a good idea—you have to do something about it," said the man who changed the smell of shoe polish.

At 43, Irving J. Bottner is America's shoe polish king—and a one-man idea factory.

Bottner decided that the 70-million-dollar annual industry was static and addicted to old ways.

But how do you glamorize a thing like shoe polish?

"The way to make money in this country is to capitalize on people's natural laziness," said Bottner. "You look for a way to make tasks easier and pleasanter."

He made a survey and found that 75 per cent of American men—and nearly all women—polish their own shoes, but regard the chore as arduous, dirty and unpleasant.

Bottner came up with a "stand-up shine bar" for the home, and pushbutton cleaners that could be sprayed on shoes without staining socks or hose. But most women objected to the odor of shoe polish.

"Why should shoe polish have to smell like shoe polish?" Bottner asked himself. He decided it didn't have to. He put his chemists to work. Their answer: A revolutionary new kit that contains shoe cleaners in five different fragrances.

Until now the average family has spent less than $2 a year for shoe cleaning preparations," said Bottner. "If we can raise that figure to $3 or $4, the industry will have its biggest boom in history."

As a child, Bottner's playpen was a wicker basket in the small Bronx hand laundry run by his parents. Life was hard.

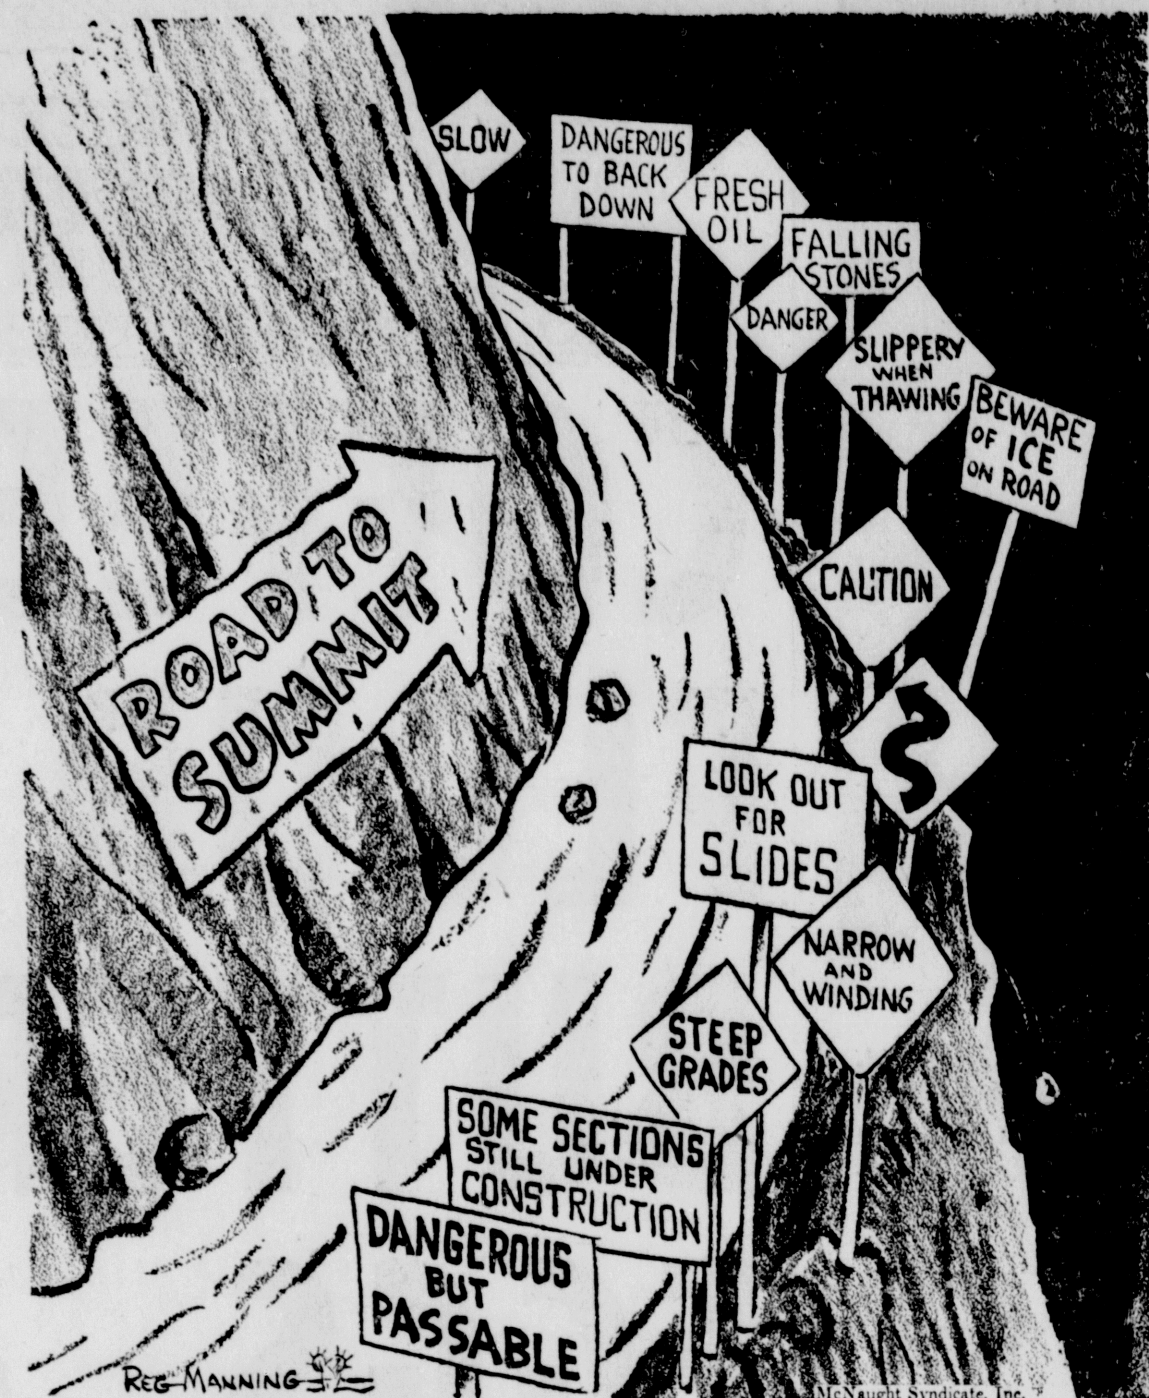

"I LEARNED EARLY you can't sit and wait for opportunity to knock," he said. "If you're ever to find real opportunity, you have to go out and start knocking yourself."

He worked his way through college, took an $18 a week job as a warehouse clerk with a frozen food firm. It was a new field, crying for new ideas.

BOTTNER'S IDEAS soon won him advancement.

"I helped pioneer vacuum cleaners on wheels and thin-wall air conditioning units," he recalled. "Going on doing old things in the same old way is a sure way to die of dry rot. The only real adventure in business is to develop new methods and new ideas."

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

How Statehood Came To Hawaii

EDITOR, Independent-Journal:

Mrs. Cook and myself thought your readers and our friends in Marin County might like to have a "first-hand" account of Hawaii being made the 50th state—as we lived for many years in San Anselmo.

What a two day celebration! Mrs. Cook and myself heard the news over the radio, March 12 at 3:04 p.m. We could hardly keep from weeping, as these people have been after statehood for 40 years!

Things started to bust loose—whistles, bells, sirens!

In the evening, Alan, my son, took the family down to Waikiki. A light rain started falling, and on the way down from the Pali, we saw the great bonfire on Sand Island, built from logs donated by all the other U.S.A. states—and one from Samoa. This was being supervised by the Army, as no one was allowed out there.

We walked into town at Waikiki. What a huge crowd was parading up and down the streets. It reminded us of San Francisco on New Year's Eve! Autos were moving along bumper to bumper blowing their horns. Out in the harbor, two Navy destroyers were shooting up colored flares, while the Army dropped white flares.

All the big hotels were lighted up, adding to the festivity. The light rain was still falling—was this a symbol of sadness?

This statehood means the passing of the real old Hawaii. Perhaps it was meant for tears of joy, and a new kind of life for the Hawaiians. After we had a bite to eat, we headed for home, arriving at midnight.

The next day the celebration went on at Iolani Palace in Hawaii; and in the afternoon, there was a show at the Honolulu Stadium from 1 to 6 p.m. Over 35,000 people were there, but we stayed home, watching it on TV. We saw the four massed bands: Army, Navy, Marine and Air Force. In the evening, there were more doings at Iolani Palace.

The huge bonfire on Sand Island was scheduled to burn for three days and nights.

Soon, there will be elections. The President has already signed the statehood bill. We think the majority of the people will vote for it.

REMEMBER WHEN

10 YEARS AGO

The J. K. Armsby estate lying south of Ross School and west of Ross Common was sold to Marin County Abstract Co., which planned to subdivide the land for a high class residential development.

Eugene W. Smith, city clerk of San Rafael, received the largest vote of any candidate on the city's ballot. It was also the greatest support given him in four decades of public service.

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

Mary Healy saw a dress she just loved in the window of a Dallas department store, but practically fainted when she found out what it cost. "Can you imagine," she told her husband, Peter Lind Hayes, later, "they wanted $2,500 for that dress?" "Cheer up," counseled Peter. "They're probably cheaper if you order six at a time."

A Hollywood agent told his chum glumly, "My wife threatens to leave me if I don't stop running around." "Too bad," said the chum. "Yes it is," agreed the agent. "I'm going to miss her."

A used-car dealer, trying to sell a teen-ager a ninth-hand hot-rod, let him take it around the block for a trial spin. "It runs good," admitted the kid when he came back, "but it's not for me. I can't make it backfire!"

Corte Madera's War Memorial Could Stand A Little Touching Up

In Corte Madera's Menke Park there's a war memorial with a sign which is supposed to read: "Honoring All Corte Madera Citizens Who Served Their Country In The Armed Forces During The World Wars."

If you get close enough to the block letters you can barely make out the inscription. But summer sunshine and winter rains have taken their toll. The sign is badly weather beaten.

This is the way it reads if you stand about 15 feet away from it:

"o ng l Co e Ma
l Who Se d he
Coun y n e Armed Forces
Du in h Wo ld Wars."

DRIVING FROM San Rafael to Corte Madera the other day, we picked up a young hitchhiker who turned out to be a first-year student at College of Marin.

Before letting him off at the campus, he told us about a recent college initiation of some kind in which he and several other fellows were forced to don feminine attire.

That night, still dressed like so many Marilyn Monroes, they were hauled off to Sausalito by their tormentors and left there without funds to fend for themselves.

The young student said he didn't realize what a close call they'd had until he read that a party of 10 top law enforcement officers had been in Sausalito the same night in an all-out search for suspected pervers.

"Why, at one point we were right across the street from the police station!" the husky youth recalled with a shudder.

IT APPARENTLY PAYS to be known as a mystery man. Women have been flocking to Scott's of Belvedere since a couple of rumors started circulating about Sahrad, a bearded hair stylist at the Boardwalk establishment.

The rumors: (1) he is really a Persian prince in disguise. (2) He did Princess Margaret's hair for three years in London before coming to this country.

The reports may or may not be true, but one thing is certain: Sahrad is a very busy man these days.

FRED F. ENEMARK of San Rafael, recently acclaimed Marin's "man of the year," is finding to his dismay that success exacts a price.

Ever since the Marin County Real Estate Board accorded him the distinction, Enemark has been besieged with invitation to address dinner meetings or be honored guest at this function and that.

The other day he took a deep breath, phoned his wife, Jean, and said in a plaintive voice: "How about it? Can I come home for a home-cooked lunch?"

The meal was a pleasant, but all too brief respite for the vice president and manager of Marin County Savings and Loan Assn. He was soon back on the rounds of dinner meetings and official functions.

Tomorrow morning he'll be hard at it again as principal speaker for the Business Education Week program at San Rafael High School.

WHAT DULLES DID

Brinkmanship Became Key To U. S. Policy

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP) — When John Foster Dulles took office as secretary of state six years ago his avowed purpose was to "wrest the initiative" from the Soviet Union and put the United States and its allies on the offensive in the cold war. He never succeeded in achieving this major objective.

Soon after he was sworn in, he found himself caught up in a tide of crises that ran throughout his crowded years in the State Department.

Foremost among his accomplishments, perhaps is the vast expansion he engineered in United States alliances and military commitments over the world. He inherited the North Atlantic Alliance, which he hoped to create, from his predecessor, Dean Acheson. But building on the coalition pattern thus established, he extended U.S. commitments in the Far East, Communist Asia and the Middle East to such a degree that Soviet-Chinese communism can hardly thrust out in any direction now without risking U.S. retaliation.

IN THE COURSE of making the new commitments Dulles developed a technique which solved a difficult problem in the conduct of U.S. foreign policy.

By getting advance authority from Congress, he eliminated a potential weakness which, in a moment of crisis, might have prevented the President from taking effective action.

Such a crisis arose last year when revolution overthrew the pro-Western government of Iraq. Dulles and Eisenhower feared that other friendly regimes would topple like a row of blocks, beginning with Lebanon and Jordan.

Against threats of Soviet counteraction the President dispatched U.S. troops to Lebanon and British forces went into Jordan to save both countries from possible falling into unfriendly hands.

THE LEBANESE action was another in a long list of moves dramatized under Dulles' policy of "brinkmanship" which has been bitterly controversial.

Dulles was in international hot water for a time last year with his insistence on supporting Nationalist China in its defense of the Chinese coastal islands, Quemoy and Matsu, against Red attack. Britain was especially fearful that Dulles might lead the United States into an unwanted war in the Far East.

He was confident, however, that if American determination was clear to the Chinese Reds they would not attempt to invade the islands. In the end his judgment seemed to be borne out by their failure to press their campaign.

To him, in this as in other crises the important thing has not been the real estate involved, but the principle that it is dangerous to try to buy peace by yielding to the threats of a potential aggressor.

HIS THEORY of brinkmanship holds that it is necessary for the United States again and again to face up to a Communist challenge in some vulnerable area of the non-Communist world and to go to the brink of war to defend a free country against conquest.

In 1956 Dulles found himself faced with perhaps the worst and most dangerous crisis of his State Department years. It involved the seizure of the Suez Canal by Egypt.

The British and French governments then in power grew tired of what they considered his defeatist attitude on the Suez issue. They attacked Egypt, after an attack by Israel.

DULLES WAS CAUGHT in the dreadful dilemma, as he saw it, of having to back this country's chief allies in an adventure of which he thoroughly disapproved, or having to denounce their action and see the Atlantic coalition split wide open.

He chose the latter course and was immediately put into the unenviable position of siding with the Soviet Union in the United Nations against Britain and France. It took a year to restore the friendly Allied relationship.

cism by Town Treasurer John R. Vance.

Morse, a town councilman since 1956, was elevated to mayor by the unanimous vote of his colleagues at an adjourned regular meeting of the council.

SURPRISE RESIGNATION
The action quickly followed the surprise resignation of Mayor William R. Hansen, who held the post one year. Hansen remains on the council.

When the meeting opened, Hansen announced he was stepping down because he felt the office of mayor should be rotated among the five council members. This done, he nominated Morse as his successor. Councilman Walter S. Long's nomination of Colhurst for vice mayor also carried without dissent.

Morse, 38, had been vice mayor since shortly after his election to the council three years ago.

SUDDEN MOVE
The sudden resignation of Black as town auditor was disclosed by Morse. On his motion, the council instructed Town Manager Arthur H. Brando to recommend a successor.

Black, not present last night, informed Morse Friday he was leaving the post he had held some 18 years and which his father occupied before him.

Morse told newsmen after the meeting that Black expressed dissatisfaction with his treatment by the council in recent weeks. He said Black appeared chiefly upset about the council's request for a detailed explanation of his latest audit of town books and records.

The auditor's resignation was disclosed to have forced the cancellation of a "work session" scheduled Saturday at which three councilmen would hear both sides of a dispute between Black and Vance.

The council last night hired Charles Newman, a Marin deputy sheriff for two years, to replace Police Officer William A. Anderson Jr., resigned. Newman, 37, will start May 1 at a salary of $395 per month, to be raised to $415 on June 1. He lives in San Rafael.

The captain is a senior pilot in the 83rd FIS. He flew 29 combat missions in Korea in F84 planes, serving in Korea from November, 1951 to October, 1952. He holds several decorations including the Air Medal.

The condition of 8-year-old Stephen L. Kopy, who suffered major injuries Saturday evening when his bicycle collided with a truck in Tamalpais Valley, was "still critical" today, according to a spokesman at Marin General Hospital.

Stephen is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph G. Kopy of 515 Browning street, Tamalpais Valley.

'LIKE A SPIDER'
From time to time, one of the felons would run out from behind the framework, then dart back into hiding—"like a spider," a watcher described it. The affair began at 8:55 a.m., when William Gastoni, a correctional officer at the prison who was off duty, saw from his home on Pt. San Quentin road two running figures.

Gastoni called the prison control room. A quick check was made with work details outside the prison wall.

Gastoni and a lieutenant from the outside guard started in pursuit of the fleeing pair.

The check disclosed that Werner, a Fresno County burglar, was missing from a work crew at the rock quarry. Wright, a Trinity County burglar and parole violator, was gone from his job of cutting grass outside the east wall.

SCALE FENCE
Both had scaled a chain-link fence to make their escape.

Fifteen minutes later, Wayne Brooks, a bartender of 1491 Lincoln avenue, San Rafael, and his neighbor, Sidney Horen, retired, of 1489 Lincoln avenue, were fishing from the pier when two men in dungarees approached, walking rapidly.

Nearby, an elderly man and woman were fishing.

"These two guys grabbed the woman by the hair," related Brooks. "They put a knife to her throat. About 75 yards behind them came two unarmed San Quentin guards. The two escapees sent the man back to tell the guards, 'Don't come any closer or we will kill her.' The woman screamed and they dragged her off to the end of the pier."

Soon, the pier was swarming with lawmen.

D.A. JOINS GROUP
Dist. Atty. W. O. Weissich joined the group around the warden. He shouted to the felons that there would be no prosecution if they would release their hostages and surrender.

"Bull!" shouted back the man. "We'd rather be dead than give up." Sheriff Mountanos added his plea and assurance of no prosecution. He got no better response.

There was nothing to do, the officers decided, but to play a waiting game.

As the crowd behind them gathered—kept back by sheriff's details and prison guards—a special telephone line was strung to the pier, connected directly with the state Department of Corrections in Sacramento. Over it, Warden Dickson made periodic reports—always the same.

NOT VIOLENT
Strangely, violence is not on the criminal records of the two men.

Werner entered San Quentin in January, 1958, on a five-year to life sentence from Fresno County for first degree burglary. He had been working in the rock quarry as a medium security prisoner.

Wright was "sent up" from Trinity County in June, 1954, to serve six months to 15 years for second degree burglary. He was once paroled, but after being on parole two years, was returned in January, 1958, for parole violation. He was working alone on the grass-cutting job.

Inmate Gets Probation While In San Quentin

A young San Quentin Prison inmate, who has spent most of his life in detention homes and jails since 1947, will be on 18 months "probation" while in prison as a result of an unusual sentence handed down in Marin Superior Court yesterday.

Charles Van Brunt, 23, drew the probation-in-San Quentin sentence of the recommendation of Probation Officer William Royse, who made a careful study of the inmate's activities and his past 11 months of flawless behavior at the prison.

On June 17, 1958, Van Brunt was caught with an eight-inch knife hidden in his shirt sleeve at the prison. Last February, care of such business as parking and civil defense. He pointed out that the federal government would pay half the cost of a civil defense chief's salary.

Councilman Fred E. Jensen backed Baar's idea. He and Baar said they would prefer a man like Kelly as assistant to the city manager rather than a young man who would use the job as a "training ground" before moving on to a bigger post.

Councilman Joseph F. Sauer said the city parking district would eventually require someone to give constant supervision.

Mayor McInnis said the city has long needed someone to police the collection of business licenses and contractors' licenses. This, together with supervision of parking meters, could well be handled by a man of Kelly's caliber, the mayor said.

But the mayor said he is against putting Chief Kelly in the city manager's office.

"There must be no possibility of a conflict between the city manager's office and the police department," McInnis asserted. He added that Kelly's training is not of a city manager type, and he would probably fit in better in supervising business licenses under Tax Collector Angelina Soldavini. The mayor said he would want to consult with the tax collector.

he pleaded guilty to possession of an illegal weapon, which could be either a misdemeanor or a felony. Since June 17 of last year, Van Brunt has a clean record.

An unusual fact led to yesterday's probation. Van Brunt has a long record of juvenile crimes, but his only adult offense was for molesting a 11-year-old girl in San Francisco on Nov. 25, 1953. He was committed to Atascadero as a psychopath. From Atascadero, he was transferred to San Quentin under a provision of the Welfare and Institutions Code. In other words, Van Brunt is being held in San Quentin as a sexual psychopath, not as a felon sentenced in criminal court.

Van Brunt has told the probation officer he is determined to get away from his past misbehavior.

His misbehavior included sniffing cleaning fluid and alcohol to get drunk and gambling with cigarettes. He finally owed $70 in cigarettes to other inmates. A three-man committee to whom he owed cigarettes tried to involve him in "white slavery" to pay off his debt. Van Brunt said he carried the knife to protect himself from the "committee."

Probation Officer Royse reasoned that if Van Brunt is sincere in his efforts to rehabilitate, he has a chance to prove it during the next 18 months in San Quentin. On the other hand, if he misbehaves, Marin Superior Court has jurisdiction to sentence him to one to five years in state prison for the concealed weapon.

Dist. Atty. W. O. Weissich did not object to the probation-in-prison recommendation.

Injured Accountant Still In Bad Shape

Henry F. Taylor III, 27-year-old Mill Valley accountant, remained on the critical list today at Mt. Zion Hospital in San Francisco, a hospital official reported.

Taylor suffered a skull fracture, crushed chest and spinal injuries early Sunday when his sports car skidded through a chain-link fence at Ft. Scott, Presidio of San Francisco.

Lincoln Ave. Extension Will Cost $100,000

San Rafael's proposed Lincoln avenue extension from Second street, through the Little League field to Irwin street, will cost about $96,000 to $100,000 without including cost of acquiring rights of way.

City Engineer Dominic J. Selmi submitted the cost estimates to the city council last night, with drawings to show three alternate plans. The cost includes a bridge crossing over Mahon Creek and a railroad grade crossing.

Property owners in and around Duffy place have agreed to contribute about $47,000 of the cost, Mayor John F. McInnis suggested that the property owners might chip in a little more to help pay for the bridge because they will benefit from the road as much as the city.

Mario Ghilotti, representing the property owners, promised to show the plans to other owners and report back to the council in two weeks. The plan that aroused the most interest last night was Selmi's Plan C, estimated to cost $99,169.

The plan calls for Lincoln avenue to be extended past the Little League field, then splitting into two roads. One would connect with Duffy place. The other would be slightly to the north, coming out on Irwin opposite DuBois street, extension. This would facilitate traffic flow, with Duffy place one-way to Irwin and the parallel street going the other way toward Second street.

TRAFFIC HALTS AT CLUB PIER —FOR DUCKS

At the height of hair-raising activities on the Marin Rod and Gun Club's pier today, traffic was halted suddenly and briefly on the freeway that passes the club's pier.

A mighty gasoline truck and trailer, heavily loaded, skidded to a stop and vehicles backed up both ways.

As soon as mother duck followed by a queue of ducklings had strolled across the busy highway, traffic resumed.

LARKSPUR

tee report said, "there is a substantial gain for Larkspur; and the topographical area involved could best be served and developed by one governmental unit."

GREATEST ADVANTAGE

The committee held that consolidation's greatest advantage lies in the field of capital improvements. Members pointed out that financing of major facilities is costly for each city, "while under consolidation the same outlay could provide added rather than duplicated facilities."

"The broader tax base provided by consolidation," said the report, "would more readily finance the needed capital improvements of the combined cities. The greater volume of funds available yearly, under consolidation, could more rapidly provide needed capital improvement, financed on a pay-as-you-go basis."

Turning to property tax rates, the committee termed "too low" a 49-cent reduction indicated by Zion for Corte Madera under consolidation. The committee said the figure more likely would amount to a 73-cent reduction.

The committee said "more recent figures developed for our study" indicate the proposed consolidated city "could have operated on a tax rate of 89 cents in the 1958-59 year, a saving of 67 cents in Corte Madera and 12 cents in Larkspur." (Zion's report estimated a rate of 84 cents, a reduction of 49 cents in Corte Madera and 16 cents in Larkspur.)

GREAT INCOME

The Larkspur committee said that while the total revenue of the two cities is "very similar," the non-property tax income of Larkspur is greater.

Sales tax revenue increases to Corte Madera from the new Corte Madera Center will be "only a short-time gain," the report said by way of comparison with Larkspur's sales tax returns. It noted the Zion report "indicates that the ultimate potential sales tax return to Larkspur will be greater than that of Corte Madera."

The Larkspur committee said there is little monetary saving indicated in providing equal fire and police protection services under consolidation in the short run. But over a period of time, it said, "a consolidated city could provide better service at lower cost, as indicated by more recent financial figures."

END DUPLICATION

Through elimination of duplication, the committee held, a merger would be beneficial in the fields of general government planning, public works, flood control, library services and parks and recreation.

"Under the law," the report continued, "the present Larkspur ordinances would govern the consolidated city. . . However, any new ordinances enacted with the intention that they are to be used for the entire consolidated city should be enacted by the duly elected

MERGER

port indicates Larkspur has twice as many as Corte Madera. "The present outstanding general obligation bonds for street improvements would remain a liability to Corte Madera and the bond interest and redemption tax rate would continue to be levied only against Corte Madera properties."

7. "Within the accuracy of the figures presented, there is no saving to be made from the standpoint of expenditures in a consolidated city, as opposed to future independent progress of each city."

REVENUE INCREASE

8. "The (Zion) report recognizes tremendous increase in revenues through sales tax receipts from the Corte Madera Center for the 1958-59 fiscal year, equal to 25 cents in the tax rate for the consolidated city. If this same application is made to Corte Madera as an independent city, taxes could be lowered in the amount of 50 cents on the present tax rate."

9. "It is recognized that some potential savings in capital costs would accrue. However, it is believed that a more comprehensive estimate of the needs is required to properly substantiate such savings."

CONSOLIDATING CITY

The Corte Madera committee also noted that if consolidation occurred prior to a federal census, Larkspur would become the consolidating city.

This, said the committee, would mean that all existing Larkspur ordinances would be effective for the entire area. It would also mean the Corte Madera master plan would cease to apply and all town ordinances would go out of existence, the committee noted.

"If consolidation occurs after the completion of the federal census of 1960," the report said, "present population and immediate future growth of Corte Madera indicate it would become the consolidating city."

Galeazzi Services Set For Tomorrow

A Requiem Mass will be offered for Archimede Galeazzi of Kentfield at St. Sebastian's Church, Greenbrae, tomorrow at 9:30 a.m. The funeral procession will leave Chapel of the Hills, San Anselmo, at 9 a.m. Entombment will be in Calvary Cemetery, Santa Rosa.

Galeazzi, who made his home at 12 Cypress avenue since coming to Marin County in 1927, died yesterday at the age of 74.

The Rosary will be recited today at 8:15 p.m. at Chapel of the Hills.

new council. Under this procedure, all people who are to be controlled by these ordinances will have a voice in their enactment."

The committee said that "due to the intangible value of community identity and civic loyalty, it is our conclusion that the name of the consolidated city should be changed (from Larkspur) by a vote of the people, as provided by law."

OBITUARIES

Margaret M. Ramey Dies

Mrs. Margaret M. Ramey, a resident of San Rafael for 22 years, died of cancer yesterday in a local hospital. The malignancy was discovered during surgery on April 3, her 71st birthday.

She was able to leave the hospital to celebrate her 46th wedding anniversary last Saturday at her home at 1807 Lincoln avenue, San Rafael. The Rameys had lived at 38 Meadow way, Fairfax, for 10 years and the move was completed during her hospitalization.

Mrs. Ramey was born in Langdon, Kan., spending her school days there. After her marriage to Francis M. Ramey, they moved to Colorado and, later, Petaluma, then to Marin.

In addition to her husband, who is a retired house painter, Mrs. Ramey leaves four daughters and a son, Mrs. Marceline Zanco and Mrs. Frances Butler of Novato, Mrs. Sarah Silva of Mill Valley, Mrs. Jeannine Mekediak of San Bruno and Capt. Don Ramey, U.S. Air Force, two sisters and two brothers, Mrs. Sadie Swan of Langdon, Kan.; Mrs. Cora Shackelford of Hutchinson, Kan.; Fred L. Smith of Silvia, Kan., and Hugh Smith of Langdon, Kan.; 16 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at the Harry M. Williams Mortuary, San Rafael, at 2 p.m. tomorrow. Interment will be in Mt. Tamalpais Cemetery.

The family requests memorial contributions be in the form of donations to the American Cancer Society.

Florence Leigh Dies In Hospital

Mrs. Florence Leigh of 127 Vendola drive, Santa Venetia, died in a local hospital last night after several months of failing health. She was 68 years old.

Mrs. Leigh came to Marin with her husband two years ago from Winston-Salem, N.C., where they had lived for 10 years. A native of Brooklyn, N.Y., she spent two years working for the Red Cross in Paris during World War I.

She met her future husband, Albert H. Leigh, in Paris on the day of the armistice signing. They were married in Brooklyn in 1920 and spent most of their married life in Ridgewood, N.J.

Mrs. Leigh, a bird-lover, was especially interested in the water birds in Marin County.

Survivors, besides her husband, a retired Western Electric Corp. engineer, are three daughters, Mrs. Martha Radus of San Rafael; Mrs. Edith Manion of Winston-Salem, N.C., and Mrs. Florence Floyd of Santa Clara; and two sisters, Mrs. Alice Buchanan of Brooklyn, N.Y., and Mrs. Mabel Thompson of New Jersey.

Funeral services will be conducted at 4 p.m. tomorrow at Keaton's Mortuary, San Rafael. Interment will be in Mt. Tamalpais Cemetery.

Mrs. MacKenna Of San Rafael Dies

Mrs. Christina MacKenna, 59, San Rafael homemaker, died yesterday at a local hospital after suffering a stroke on Sunday.

She lived at 1117 Lincoln avenue with her husband, Edward, who is employed by Bianco Motors. They were in the process of moving to 8 Laurel place. The MacKennas came to Marin County 24 years ago, just after their marriage in New York.

Funeral services will be held at Keaton's on Thursday at 10 a.m. Interment will be private.

DIVORCES GRANTED

SWEETLAND—Doris from Harold. On April 16, it was erroneously reported that Harold had won the divorce from Doris Sweetland.

SILVERSEN — Helena I. from Chester R. ZIMBISKY — Margaret from Matthew A. SLOAN—Robert F. from Marylene L.

Petaluma Rites For Suzanne Tunzi

A High Requiem Mass will be offered for Mrs. Suzanne Tunzi of Marshall at St. Vincent's Church, Petaluma, at 9:30 a.m. Thursday. The funeral cortege will form at Sorenson Funeral Home in Petaluma at 9:15 a.m. Entombment will be in Calvary Mausoleum.

Mrs. Tunzi, who was 67, died at her home yesterday, apparently from a heart attack.

She came to Marin County 23 years ago with her husband, Pacific, who is employed by the state Division of Highways. They lived in Tomales and later in Marshall.

The two were married in San Francisco in 1931, 25 years after Mrs. Tunzi came to this country from France.

Petaluma GI Dies Of Crash Injuries

NASHUA, N.H. (AP)—Michael F. Brown, 30, a soldier from Petaluma, died last night of injuries suffered in an auto accident last Saturday.

Leonard C. Patronik, 23, of Hudson, Pa., another soldier, was killed in the crash. The car he was driving hit a tree.

Students To Attend Model United Nation

Marin Catholic students are preparing for their roles as delegates to the High School Model United Nations at the University of California at Berkeley Friday and Saturday. Participating in the conference will be over 400 students from 60 high schools.

Marin Catholic will represent two nations. El Salvador's delegation is headed by Deanna Denman, whose assistants are Frank Healy, Maureen Sheridan, Pete Mitchell, Art Quinn, Dan Denman, Wil Guerrero, and Gregg Hobbs.

The Iranian delegation will be captained by Dave Wilson with Melinda Krause, George Silvestri, Marleen Todd, Tom Hall, Sue Hayes, and Judy Munch.

Little League Benefit Ball at Bermuda Palms

Next Friday a Little League benefit dance will be held at Bermuda Palms in San Rafael. The dance is for all high school students in Marin County and will begin at 8:30 p.m. and end at midnight.

The proceeds will go to the Little League of San Rafael for construction of a ball park. Tickets may be purchased at any high school in the county or at the door.

Novato Band Concert Planned for May First

TAM REGISTER NOW ON SALE

The Class Register, first in Tam's history, is now on the market selling at 35 cents each.

This attractively bound blue book contains the name, address, phone number, and class of each member of the student body. And according to Tam's Daily Bulletin, you can look in the friendly white pages of the Register if your Friday nights lack variety.

It was compiled by the Class of 1959 to raise money primarily for the Senior Ball.

Tam Dancers To Give Show

Fifty-five active members of the Silhouettes, the Modern Dance Club at Tam, have done most of their own choreography for their second annual show, "Rhythm & Rhyme" according to Kathie Silva, president. This year the show will be held in Ruby Scott Auditorium at Tam on Friday, May 1 and Saturday, May 2.

The theme of the show is "Escapades in Space." Costumes, scenery, and music will be in the era of the future. "Moonscape," "Lady Is Blue," "Saturday Night on Saturn," "Cosmic Comets," "Exploration," and "Immortality in Space" are some of the numbers to be presented. Although the names of some of these numbers make vivid pictures in one's mind, the routines made for them will be abstract and entirely original creations, according to Mrs. John Smith, advisor.

The rhyme part of the show will be provided by the drama department under the direction of Mr. Peter Klain. The plays to be presented are "Overtones" and "Sparkin'."

San Rafael High Posts Honor Roll

On the San Rafael high school honor roll for the period ending April 10 are 120 students, 74 of who are girls and 47 whom are boys.

The sophomores lead all the classes, with 34 on the roll. They are followed by the seniors with 33. The freshmen placed 32 and the juniors 22.

To earn a place on the roll a student must have all grade points on the basis of three points for an "A" and one point for a "B."

Earning 21 points to top the honor roll is Kathy Kuehn, a senior. Receiving 19 points are Richard McGinnis and Chris Steiger, also seniors.

Four students have a total of 18 points, a straight "A" record: Sheldon Bachus, Kristin Evju, John Taylor and Jean Vivaldo.

Kathy Cazassa earned 17 points.

16 Points

Redwood's first-year course in Russian will be open to those advanced language students with high grade averages in their first language. The history and culture courses, planned to supplement each other, will be one-semester courses open to juniors and seniors.

When it was learned that Alan Power, who was hired to take over George Pohlmann's teaching duties at Tam next year, also was a Russian interpreter, Tam students jumped at the chance to study this difficult language under him.

Power, 29, is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania as an English major and of the Army Language School at Monterey as a Russian major. He did graduate work at San Francisco State College and spent two years in Japan as an interpreter. For the last three years he has taught English and social studies in Napa schools. Last fall he served as line coach for the Napa High football team. He will serve in the latter capacity at Tam.

Marin Catholic Play Given College Contest Second Prize

At the recent drama festival hosted by the University of Santa Clara, Marin Catholic High School's entry "Sunday Costs Five Pesos" was awarded the second best play prize.

This one-act play was one of three presented last December in Marin Catholic's annual Dramatic Arts Contest. Then it received the award as the best play and the two leads, Art Quinn and Joan Moran, individually placed first and second.

The cast that performed at the University of Santa Clara included these two, Kathy Marcone, Sue Smith and Marty To-bener. Joan Moran received an award for best actress of the play.

Also on the drama calendar is the St. Mary's College Festival where Marin Catholic speech students will repeat the play.

Awards Given About Space To SR Seniors

Three San Rafael seniors will travel to Vallejo, April 23, to compete for the zonal Bank of America Awards. The students and their divisions are Kathy Kuehn, liberal arts; Lee Fullerton, fine arts; and Judy Lawrence, vocational arts.

All candidates at Vallejo will be independently ranked by five judges who will consider grades, activities and oral expression. Each entrant will participate in panel discussions having to do with their fields. Judge will follow these discussions with questions.

The top winners in each field will be eligible to enter the final selection event in San Francisco May 19. Second and third place winners will receive $50 and $25 zone awards.

Exchange Student Funds Sought

An "international week," sponsored by the International Friendship Club to encourage interest in foreign exchange programs and to raise funds for student participants, is now underway at Sir Francis Drake High School.

Included in the week's activities will be a Bermuda Day when students have the opportunity to wear Bermudas to school; a free throw contest to determine the champion free shooter in each class; a benefit movie, "Vertigo," starring James Stewart and Kim Novak, to be shown at the Fairfax Theater tomorrow night; and climaxing the week's activities a rally featuring student speakers who will tell of their experiences within their respective exchange programs.

Dayton, Ohio, is the birthplace of the airplane, cash register, electric starter and automotive ignition.

Math Club Organizes, Has Charter

The Sir Francis Drake High School mathematics department has been given national recognition, receiving a charter from Mu Alpha Theta, a national high school and junior college mathematics organization.

Drake was granted its charter only after a careful examination of course offerings and staff in mathematics by Mu Alpha Theta's national officers and governors. To become a member of the club, a student must have a grade average of "B" in at least four semesters of solid mathematics, and must have an overall average of "B" in all work.

With Mrs. Julie Crawford acting as faculty advisor, the following membership has been achieved: Linda Allison, Lawrence Andrews, Paul Bodenhammer, Mari Cummings, Susan Detweiler, Mabry Geller, Douglas Holms, Marilyn Nault, Howard Reichmuth, Donald Trotter, Judy Yaffee, Sandra Berke, Norma Fong, and Robert Sadler.

NOVA Editor Appointed

John Picchi, Novato High School sophomore, has been appointed editor for the 1960 NOVA, announced yearbook advisor Michael Gragg this week.

Two other posts filled are assistant editor, sophomore Karen Lautrup, and advertising manager, junior Norman Johnson. Other appointments will be made at the end of this semester, or early next fall, Mr. Gragg reported.

A few additional books to accommodate those on the waiting list for the 1959 NOVA have been ordered, Mr. Gragg revealed. "However, salesmen have been instructed not to accept more new orders, and as it is, some people will be disappointed, since this year's order was based on the number of subscribers secured in the drive last fall."

Final payments from those paying on the installment plan must be received by May 1. The book is slated for delivery in June.

If you want the most in a station wagon!

No matter what you have seen in station wagons before, we're sure you'll be delighted with the all-new Oldsmobile Fiesta. Here is the most beautiful blending of style, comfort and utility you've ever known. It's roomier inside than ever before. Rear seats can be changed into cargo carrying space at the touch of a finger—and back again in an instant. Oldsmobile eliminated the lift gate for '59... the rear window slips neatly into the tailgate.

What's more, for extra protection, long-lasting vinyl in a wide range of colors covers all hard-wear areas... while passenger areas are as tastefully designed as an Oldsmobile sedan! There are so many new and different things about the Fiesta, you'll want to try them all... and this is the time to start!

Drysdale's Pitching Beats Giants, 2-1

IN THE DIRT — First baseman Norman Larker of Los Angeles dives safely back to first as Sam Jones of San Francisco tried to pick him off first at Los Angeles last night. Orlando Cepeda is the Giants' first baseman. Coach Wes Westrum at lower right. The Dodgers won, 2-1, on a ninth inning home run. (AP Wirephoto)

Mays Hits 1st Homer Of Season

LOS ANGELES (P) — About this time a year ago, young Don Drysdale was pitching as though he thought there would be a special award for all-around utility.

Somebody apparently tipped him off between seasons, because the Los Angeles Dodger couldn't have looked more changed if he had come back from spring training this year with two heads.

The San Francisco Giants got a look at the new Drysdale last night and if they enjoyed the demonstration, they didn't show it. The 6-foot-6 righthander allowed them just three hits, retired 21 straight batters in one stretch and struck out 11.

HOMER BY MAYS

Two of the three hits were infield scratches and the other was a quite legitimate homer by Willie Mays—his first, incidentally, of the season.

When little Charlie Neal belted a ninth-inning homer that gave Los Angeles a 2-1 decision, the Dodgers vaulted over San Francisco and into second place, a position they haven't occupied since Aug. 31, 1957.

Drysdale—who lost seven of his first eight decisions last year—said this game was one of the finest he ever pitched.

TOOK EARLY LEAD

The Giants took a 1-0 lead in the first inning last night when Mays slammed his homer into the left-center field seats. The Giants didn't get another man on base until the eighth when Andre Rodgers made it on an infield single. Jackie Brandt got the other San Francisco hit in the ninth.

The Dodgers scored their first run in the second when Don Demeter walked, was sacrificed to second by Johnny Roseboro, moved to third on a single by Norm Larker and came home on another single by Don Zimmer.

Neal led off the ninth with his game-winning homer. It was his first of the year.

JONES TAKES LOSS

Sad Sam Jones went all the way for the Giants and took the loss. He is 1-2. The Dodgers got six hits, three for extra bases.

Tonight the Giants are expected to start Stu Miller, who won the National League earned run average title last year with a mark of 2.47. For the Dodgers it will be Stan Williams. Both are 0-0.

Last season Miller was 2-0 against Los Angeles. Williams had no 1958 record against San Francisco.

Only two other games were scheduled in the majors yesterday, and both were rained out. In the National, Pittsburgh had a 1-0 first inning lead over Philadelphia before calling it quits. In the American League, New York's game at Boston didn't even get started.

Amazing 64 By Burke Wins Houston Classic

HOUSTON, Tex. (P)—Jack Burke Jr. moved over to his new Champions Golf Course today after scoring an amazing 64 to beat Julius Boros in the playoff for the $30,000 Houston golf classic title.

Burke's 30-34—64, one stroke short of the tournament record, gave him $4,300 and jumped him from 30th to 10th place among the year's leading money winners.

The 64 left Burke five strokes ahead of the 35-34—69 Boros found was good for only $3,000 in second money over the 7,133-yard par 72 Memorial Park course.

"It was one of the best rounds of my career," said Burke, the former Masters champion who received much of his early training at Memorial, a municipal course near a country club where his father was head pro.

Boros said Burke's round was one of the finest he ever had seen.

The two had finished the 72-hole tournament Sunday in a tie at 277.

Burke today joined Jimmy Demaret in formally dedicating and opening their new 18-hole Champions Course northwest of Houston. Burke, who does not approve of Las Vegas

BOSTON CLASSIC Finnish Detective Wins Marathon

BOSTON (P)—Powerful Eino Oksanen of Finland has capped a comeback and stamped himself as a leading threat for next year's Olympic marathon crown by winning the Boston Classic.

The 27-year-old Helsinki detective on larceny detail broke up a two-man race a mile from the tape and beat Johnny Kelley by 300 yards yesterday in a withering spurt. The time was 2:22:42.

The Boston A.A. test was only the second for Oksanen in more than a year. A severely sprained ankle kept him out of action until late in '58 and his previous effort was poor.

The sturdy redhead tried his first marathon in October, 1955, and came off with a remarkable 2:25:47 victory in his native land. Oksanen's second effort was a third place behind countryman Antti Viskari and Kelley in the 1956 B.A.A.

Kelley's consistency makes him America's top Olympic marathon hope. In the past four years the 28-year-old Groton, Conn., school teacher won in 1957 and was second each of the other three. His time was 2:23:43.

Another upcoming marathoner is Gordon Dickson of Hamilton, Canada, who finished strong to take third place. Dickson finished seventh in 1956 and 1957. Rounding out the first 10 were Veikko Karvonen of Finland—1954 winner and Oksanen's teammate — Osvaldo Suarez of Argentina, Robert Pape of England, Nobuyoshi Sadanaga of Japan, James Green of Saugus, Mass., Al Confalone of Wakefield, Mass., and Australia's Geoffrey Watt.

Rabbits Fail To Improve Pirate Luck

PITTSBURGH (P)—Last Saturday a rabbit scampered all over the diamond in Milwaukee during a game between the Braves and the Pirates.

He was a smash hit with Pittsburgh fans, especially since the Pirates won their first game after losing the first five of the season.

So last night a group of fans presented the Pirates with a couple of good luck charms—two rabbits.

Catcher Smoky Burgess accepted the rabbits in a special ceremony before a game with the Phillies. Rain halted the game at the end of the first inning. The score: Pirates 1, Phillies 0.

HANLEY'S REPORT

Rodgers Is Grateful To Fans Of Giants

By JACK HANLEY I-J Correspondent

LOS ANGELES—Here in the Los Angeles Coliseum, even before the first game between the Giants and Dodger started last night, a familiar complaint was heard.

A cynical Los Angeles sports writer, pointing to Andre Rodgers, said:

"That's the one-time Bahama cricket player who boots them."

Now, it was difficult if not impossible to answer that. But if the soft-spoken six-foot-three ex-cricket player had overheard the remark he probably would have answered:

"I've never worked for a better outfit. It cannot be anything but most encouraging and heartening for an employee to have the support and confidence of tolerant and understanding bosses."

Rodgers speaks that way—and in a British accent, coming from Nassau. Whether he ultimately nails down the shortstop berth on the Giants—his third try—or goes back once again to Phoenix of the Pacific Coast League, Rodgers will never forget the support Bill Rigney and Horace Stoneham gave him.

And Andre, or Andy as his teammates call him, also will always be grateful to Giant fans at Seals Stadium for their encouraging cheers each time he came to bat last week in the Cub and Card series until he finally belted his first homer of the season Saturday.

The fans, better than sports writers, seemed to sense the frightful feeling Rodgers had as the home series opened at Sixteenth and Bryant streets. They groaned each time he made an error but did not boo him when he came to bat. In fact, the vast majority clapped and many cheered.

With five errors already officially scored against him in the first three-game series at St. Louis, Rodgers was a very jittery young man coming into Seals Stadium. Fortunately, none of those errors was fatal because the Giants swept that series 3-0. And fortunately, none of the three additional errors he was charged with in the Cub and Card series at Seals Stadium was responsible for a run.

There is little doubt that the cheers of the fans were as beneficial to Rodgers' morale as antibiotic wonder drugs would be to a patient plagued by no-good viruses jitterbugging through his system.

Nevertheless, at least one San Francisco sports editor ignored the fans, not to mention Rigney and Stoneham, and began crying for Rodgers' scalp. Even the three errors that Daryl Spencer made in the final Cub game at Seals Stadium were indirectly attributed to Rodgers by the sports writing pundit who wailed:

"Rodgers is demoralizing the Giant infield."

After that blast, not only Rodgers but Rigney and Stoneham as well probably experienced an emotional gloom.

But, if they did, they didn't show it. Rodgers reacted with his first hit in 15 times at bat—his first homer—and flawless fielding.

Stoneham reacted calmly, saying: "We still believe he is the one fellow who can better our infield. The pressure has been on him at home. Maybe he will find himself on the road."

The BULLPEN

Tough Job Picking Winners, But Connolly Likes Giants, If . . .

LOS ANGELES—Now that the furore of opening games is over and the writers have settled down to reporting, instead of prognosticating, I'd like to add my nonsensical reasoning on the ultimate outcome of the 1959 National League pennant race.

How can anyone with all his "marbles" predict a pennant for a team that has to play 154 ball games?

It has to be strictly a guess or a grab bag prediction.

Too many important factors are involved between April and October that tend to confuse a prophet. And the factors are items that cannot be toyed with unless the word "if" runs throughout the story.

Some of the "ifs" concern managerial changes, or even a more polite word for being fired, such as replacement.

There were managerial switches in 1958 and there could be re-occurrences in the season just under way.

I'm not picking any club to make a change, but a lot of 'em could and might before long.

ANYTIME a manager is replaced during the season the club and players, and sometimes even the owners, get confused. The switching of a manager in mid-stream could bolster a club and it could likewise ruin the outfit.

So let's consider the chances of injuries hurting a contender's chances. Injuries have always been and will always be, the bugaboo of success. Nothing cripples a pennant contending team more than "injured stars."

Consider, for the nonce, what the S. F. Giants would do without such stars as Willie Mays, Orlando Cepeda, Johnny Antonelli or Sad Sam Jones. When star players get hurt in bunches, they really wipe out a team's chances.

There is another condition in San Francisco that could be a determining factor, not only to the Giants, but to visiting clubs as well. I refer to the weather.

SAN FRANCISCO weather during 1958 was altogether too nice, and too warm for the

CONNOLLY

Giants to know the real McCoy S. F. weather.

The Giants would hardly understand a succession of foggy, windy, wet and real cold nights.

Nor could they understand that when it's windy and foggy in the evening it often is worse in the afternoon. And particularly during the Indian summer, as they call it. I've worn an overcoat to the ball park in S. F. on July 4 and it rained.

I'm not predicting it, but before long our newly-adopted Native Sons out of New York and way points could get a taste of it and when they do, we shall see what we shall see.

Often fresh cream goes sour and what do you suppose would happen if our recognized front liners like Mays, Cepeda, Schmidt, Brandt, Kirkland and Davenport didn't play up to last year's standards?

PLAYERS chosen to be regulars MUST deliver. If they improve it's great. If they flop, it could be tragic. And it could happen.

There are pitchers on the staff of every National League team who could come off the bench to become starters, and run up a string of consecutive victories that would shake the circuit.

It happened before when Rube Marquard, an unknown one year with the Giants, came along the next season to win 19 straight games.

If anything like that happens to the Giants, wouldn't it be nice and wouldn't it change the team's rating?

And another big "if" is that ball clubs running along smoothly have been known, for

SAN RAFAEL HERO WINS TROPHY

Dale Blanton, exalted ruler of the San Rafael's Elks Lodge, presents trophy to San Rafael's Brent Marshall following his outstanding performances in Saturday's Marin County High School Track and Field Championships at Tamalpais. Marshall tied a record in the 120-yard high hurdles in 15.1 seconds and also won the 180 low hurdles and pole vault to lead San Rafael to the team championship. The Elks, sponsors of the meet, gave Marshall the trophy as outstanding individual of the meet.

some unaccountable reason, to "crack up." The Dodgers did it in 1958 with the same personnel they had as pennant contenders in 1957.

MILWAUKEE almost collapsed last year until the S. F. "Gees" unwittingly dropped eight out of nine games to them in the clutch drive and bolstered their spirits so high they went on to repeat as pennant winners.

So as I started to say, ball clubs are a risk at their best and always a gamble.

From my observations during the spring and since the season began I'd have to say that the Giants could easily win the 1959 pennant. And they could blow it if you include the above named "ifs" mentioned.

The Giants of 1959 have power, youth, recognized pitching "know how," a long bench, and a fever known as "pennant virus." I'll be a sorry so-and-so if they haven't got the 1959 pennant wrapped up two weeks before the curtain is rung down . . . "IF."

Jordan-Akins Rematch Slated For TV Friday

NEW YORK (UPI)—The twice-postponed world's welterweight championship bout between title-holder Don Jordan of Los Angeles and former champ Virgil Akins of St. Louis Friday night features this week's boxing program.

The two originally had signed to meet on March 6, but was moved ahead to April 3 when a heavy tornado struck the St. Louis area. Then a member of Jordan's family became ill and the champion asked to change the date a second time.

The 23-year-old Jordan won the title from Akins by a decision last Dec. 5. Since then, he has kept busy, winning nine straight bouts. Akins, who held the title for only six months, has been idle since the Jordan match.

The champion's overall record is 44 victories in 55 bouts, with 11 losses. He has won 15 times by knockout. The 31-year-old Akins has won 49 of 69 fights, with 19 losses and a draw. He numbers 29 kayo victims.

The 15-round bout will be televised nationally by N.B.C.

Tomorrow night's nationally-televised fight brings together Spider Webb, the third ranking middleweight contender, and young Neal Rivers of Las Vegas, Nev., in a 10-rounder at the Chicago Stadium.

The 27-year-old Webb, who is seeking a title bout, has won his last three starts, all by knockouts. A former NCAA champion and a member of the 1952 U.S. Olympic boxing team, Webb has an impressive pro record of 32 victories in 36 fights.

The 25-year-old Rivers, despite being younger than Webb, has an edge over his opponent in experience. He has had 55 fights as a pro, winning 44 of them. In his last bout, he knocked out Juan Padilla in the fifth round for his 26th kayo. Rivers also holds victories over Willie Vaughn, Milo Savage and Tony Dupas among others.

Berkeley Defeats Marin Skiers In Grudge Match

Berkeley defeated the Marin Ski Club in their annual grudge match in races held at the Sugar Bowl over the weekend.

Alaska Governor Takes Full Duty

JUNEAU, Alaska (AP)—William A. Egan, rushed to a hospital hours after being sworn in as Alaska's first elected governor, Jan. 3, took over the full duties of his office yesterday.

The 44-year-old Democrat, far below his normal weight but optimistic, returned to Juneau a week ago. He had been given only a 50-50 chance for survival after being flown to Seattle for an emergency abdominal operation.

Egan expects to return to Seattle soon for a relatively minor gallstone operation.

Redwood Ski Team Wins Jr. Title

Redwood High School skiers took top team honors Sunday in the annual Marin Junior Ski Races at the Sugar Bowl.

Members of the winning team and their times over the giant slalom course were: Larry Galen, 1:05.6; Roger Siemens, 1:10.3; Gene Neville, 1:47.2; Janet Siemens, 2:10.6; Joan Pier, 7:35.2.

The annual event is sponsored by high school students by the Marin Ski Club.

Man Accused Of Lewdness

Marin City contractor Ver-tis Denver Spigner, 32, who was cleared by a jury last January of trying to rape a 14-year-old baby-sitter in Belveron Gardens, is wanted again on suspicion of lewdly accosting a housewife last Friday night.

A warrant of arrest was issued yesterday in Marin Municipal Court on a complaint by Mrs. Margaret Edith Kessler, 24, who says Spigner propositioned her for $50. Bail has been set at $750. Sheriff's deputies were looking for the contractor this morning.

Richard M. Kessler told officers he and his wife were driving north on Highway 101 near Richardson Bay Bridge when he had a flat tire. He went to Bay Auto Wreckers for repairs. When the job was done, a man, later identified as Spigner, told him to go to the office.

According to Mrs. Kessler, Spigner then came to her car and made the lewd proposal. Kessler returned to the car, found his wife pale with fright and drove to a service station in Tamalpais Valley to call the sheriff's office.

Mrs. Kessler said the man told her he had been in trouble "with one of your kind before" but had gotten away with it, according to sheriff's deputies.

Last Sept. 8, a 14-year-old girl, baby-sitting in Belveron Gardens, complained that Spigner had entered the house to use the telephone, then pushed her into the bedroom and tried to attack her. A Marin Superior Court jury acquitted Spigner.

Corte Madera Mail Tampering Reported

Mailbox tampering in the vicinity of 37 Corte Madera avenue was reported to Corte Madera police yesterday by Postmaster Edward J. Victor.

Police Chief Frank L. Nelson said letters had been taken from boxes and scattered in nearby bushes. It appeared to be the work of juveniles; he reported.

OFFICIALS SWORN IN

Kelly Turns In Badge, Receives Big Ovation

Police Chief Frank Kelly, defeated last week after 16 years in office, turned in his badge to the city council last night as an audience that packed the council chamber gave him a standing ovation.

Kelly congratulated the elected officials, including his successor, Charles J. Chiesa. He pointed out Chiesa will have many problems, "but anything I can do to help out, don't hesitate to call on me." He said he is sure the officers will work as hard for Chiesa as they did for him.

"I have no apologies to make; I stand on my record," said Kelly. New Chief Chiesa, his wife, Gloria, and their son, Charles Jr., were introduced to the audience. Joseph Filippo, who campaigned vigorously for Chiesa, presented the chief's emblem to Chiesa.

Mayor John F. McInnis thanked Chief Kelly for his long and faithful service and for "maintaining an outstanding police department for the city."

The mayor swore in re-elected City Clerk W. L. Morgan, who in turn administered the oath of office to all the other elected officials. They include Mayor McInnis, Councilmen Charles W. Aby and Fred E. Jensen, Police Chief Chiesa, Tax Collector Angelina Soldavini, City Atty. Albert E. Bagshaw, and three members of the board of education: Rex Silvernale, C. Paul Bettini and Roderick P. Martinelli.

An official tabulation of the April 13 election, including 68 absentee ballots, shows the following total votes cast:

For mayor—McInnis, 4,492.

Councilmen—Jensen, 3,410; Aby, 3,270; Michael McLean, 2,624.

City clerk—Morgan, 4,497. Tax Collector—Soldavini, 4,601.

City attorney—Bagshaw, 2,993; Thomas P. Boyd, 2,264. Police chief—Chiesa, 3,111; Kelly, 2,254.

Board of education—Bettini, 4,143; Martinelli, 4,122; Silvernale, 3,020; William G. (Bill) Thompson, 2,850; C. Roy Calder, 2,044.

Total votes cast were 5,396 within the city limits (including 66 absentees) and 782 outside the city limits but within the high school district (including two absentees).

3-R School Pool, Showers Approved

Permission to build a swimming pool and shower building next to the 3-R School north of San Rafael was approved yesterday by the Marin County Planning Commission, with the condition that a six-foot closed wooden fence be built to shield the area from the view of nearby residents, and subject to architectural control by the county.

James W. Kirchanski, president of the school, was instructed also that the exact type of shower building to be constructed, would be subject to the approval of a planning commission committee.

The recommendation will go before the County Board of Supervisors April 28.

Tiburon Man Fined For Drunken Driving

John Patrick Meeks, 40-year-old store clerk of P. O. Box 719, Tiburon, must pay $250 fine and remain on probation for one year for his first drunken driving offense.

Judge Albert F. Scheidecker of Sebastopol, sitting in Marin Municipal Court, sentenced Meeks yesterday for driving while intoxicated on Redhill avenue in San Anselmo last Sunday.

Bay Authority Objections Withdrawn

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The San Francisco Board of Supervisors and the Oakland Board of Port Commissioners withdrew their objections yesterday to proposed legislation setting up a Golden Gate Authority to handle public projects.

The port commissions made it a condition of their support that the authority be stripped of power over the Port of Oakland and the Oakland Airport.

The San Francisco Board of Supervisors also attached some conditions. These were that San Francisco get half the seats on the board of directors and be paid the full current market value for the San Francisco International Airport. It asked the Golden Gate bridge debt be guaranteed and that the authority take over the ports of Stockton and Sacramento.

State Sen. John F. McCarthy of San Rafael, a Republican and author of the original bill, which has been amended 61 times, called the San Francisco action "farsighted."

VIVA KNOCKNABOUL

Little Bit O' Ireland Invades Terra Linda

A bit o' Ireland has invaded the pseudo-Spanish community of Terra Linda with a street named Knocknaboul way.

Contractor P. J. Tarrant of an Rafael didn't like the way one Terra Linda resident objected to the street name because it looked like "Knockabout way" and "wasn't in character."

"There are plenty of names out there now I'd like to know how to pronounce," said the ruddy-faced Irishman.

Knocknaboul has a special meaning for him, being the name of a town in County Kelly, Ireland, where he was born. It means "the hill of the basin," Tarrant explained to the county planning commission yesterday afternoon.

Tarrant got approval of his 37-lot subdivision tentative map called Las Collindas No. 6 with apparent disregard for mixing of nationalities. The planning commission required that the lot sizes be large enough to conform to the county slope policy.

The commission set May 18 for rezoning the nine-acre subdivision to residential land. It is on the north edge of Terra Linda at the base of a hill. The lots are strung along either side of Knocknaboul way.

5,000 Delegates Are To Attend CCPT Conclave In Los Angeles

Approximately 5,000 delegates, representing a state membership of well over 1,700,000, will assemble in Los Angeles, May 6, 7, and 8, for the Sixtieth Annual Convention of the California Congress of Parents and Teachers. Congress president, Mrs. J. Frank Snowden of Alhambra, will preside at all general sessions which will be held at the Shrine Civic Auditorium.

"We Expand Our Circles of Understanding," convention theme, will be developed through general assemblies, demonstrations, training conferences, clinics and discussion groups.

Dr. Myron Olson, professor of secondary education, University of Southern California, will deliver the opening address on Wednesday morning. "More Fringe Benefits for Parents." To extend greetings from the National Congress of Parents and Teachers will be its official representative, Mrs. Clifford Jenkins of New York, NCPT first vice president.

Conferences for unity presidents—elementary, secondary, and junior colleges—and for council and district officers and chairmen will launch the training session on Wednesday.

Demonstration of a "typical" P-T-A meeting will be featured at the general session on Wednesday evening and will be directed by Dr. Warren H. Schmidt, assistant director, University of California in Los Angeles.

Thursday morning will mark the beginning of a continuous series of conferences. Departmental clinics will embrace the various offices and chairmanships not covered in the Wednesday afternoon conferences. Small assemblies of 100 persons each will gather in 43 separate groups on Thursday afternoon, to share their ideas and to learn from each other as well as from the CCPT leaders.

To complete the day's proceedings will be a "family" program at Thursday evening's general session with an address by Mrs. Jenkins entitled "Ships on Our P-T-A Horizon." Another highlight of this session will be the Mothersingers' Concert.

Women's Golf Club Forms New Section

The Indian Valley Women's Golf Club has organized a social section. The first function of the newly-organized section will be an every Tuesday bridge meet at the Golf club beginning at 1:30 p.m. Every third Tuesday will be all day bridge, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Hopes to expand the new social section into handling pot luck dinners, hobby groups were expressed by chairman, Mrs. Carl Rangeli of the Standing Bridge committee. Committee members are Mesdames James Cermak, Harley McAskill and George Hartman. Any one interested in joining the social section or the Golf club may contact Mrs. Rangeli or the committee.

Officers' Wives Plan May Party At Hospital

A May Day party will be given at Sonoma State Hospital by wives of officers in the office of Deputy for Materiel at Hamilton Air Force Base. Co-chairmen Mrs. Joseph T. Klemovich and Mrs. Randall Earl have arranged an afternoon entertainment for 52 children who are patients in the cerebral palsy section.

The women are preparing May baskets containing cookies and fresh spring flowers for each child. In addition special gifts will be given as part of a guessing game. The program, which will be on May 1, has been planned for the special requirements of the patients. About 15 women are working to give the party.

'MARIN MOODS' will prevail on Friday, May 1 as the theme for the family dessert fashion show to be given by the First Presbyterian Church of San Anselmo. Three Marin stores will provide fashions. Commentator for the show Mrs. John Bellamy Jr., left, goes over plans with chairman, Mrs. Hans E. Fischel, right.

Parties Precede Civic Program For Sausalito Woman's Club

The People-to-People Program holds great interest in Sausalito if parties preceding the recent Civics Program meeting of the Sausalito Woman's Club is any indication. At this meeting, Robert C. Doerr of San Jose, present councilman and former mayor of that city, was the guest speaker.

Honoring Doerr, Mrs. M. Justin Herman, chairman for the day, gave a luncheon in her home on Vista Clara road in Sausalito. Mrs. Herman had as her guests, besides Mr. Doerr, Mrs. Van Allen Treat, president of the Sausalito Woman's Club, and Mesdames Howard Heivers, wife of Mayor Seivers of Sausalito and a member of the school board in Sausalito; Donald Fowler of Mill Valley, who is active in the student exchange program of the American Field Service; Gordon Arter, Leroy Schwarcz, Leah Schwarcz, Bill Hillhouse, James Higgins and John Loutzenheizer.

Mrs. Brookner Brady had a group of women interested in this exchange program and "sister-city" affiliation at her home on Miller avenue for dessert and coffee before Doerr's 70 guests for a buffet dessert and coffee party.

ing Tamalpais High School under auspices of the American Field Service.

Ritva Hanononen from Finland and Houshang Dezfoulian from Iran were presented by Mrs. Walter Thomson. Mrs. Walter Thomson, chairman of the Civics Committee of the Sausalito Woman's Club, assisted Mrs. Brady with hostess duties.

Those invited by Mrs. Brady were Mesdames Robert G. Anderson, Frank Bosl, Joseph DeMartini, Gene Doud, Richard F. Grambow, Willard Hall, John Koenig, Ord W. Milne, A. C. Maynard, Gilbert Murphy, Lee P. Perrone who is representative of the Little Theatre Group on the People-to-People program; Richard F. ## Mrs. Comstock Installed As Auxiliary Head

Officers of Muir Woods Auxiliary to Post 6741, Veterans of Foreign Wars, were installed recently at the IOOF Hall in Mill Valley.

Installed as president for the coming year was Mrs. Donald Comstock with her corps of officers — Mesdames Herbert Huffman, senior vice president; Joseph King, junior vice president; Willis Cline, treasurer; Ella Smith, chaplain; T. H. Childers, secretary; A. J. Rometti, conductress; Edward Reichmuth, guard; Carlos Nelson, patriotic instructor; Paul Hughes, A. H. Peters, David Swanson and Peter Silveira, color bearers; Joseph Byrne, historian; and Carol Barber, musician.

Mrs. Byrne was presented with her past president's pin at the altar by Mrs. Huffman, and with a gift by Mrs. Comstock on behalf of her officers, and Mrs. Rometti received her three-year treasurer's pin and Mrs. Childers her three-year secretary's pin from Mrs. Byrne.

ANNIVERSARY PICNIC SLATED FOR SATURDAY AT KORTICKS'

The fourteenth anniversary picnic of the Ancient Order of Lost Spirits will be held on Saturday at the Kortick estate in Kentfield. It will also mark the retirement of the host, Clifford Kortick, from the MJB Coffee Company with which he has been associated for forty two and a half years. All of the guests are either with the company or are former employees.

The picturesque estate has been in the Kortick family since 1907 when the hosts' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Kortick, bought the property. Clifford Kortick has been an Elk for 29 years and is now a member of San Rafael Lodge No. 1108.

Saturday's stag party will begin with a flag raising and salute at 11 a.m. and the Star Spangled Banner will be sung by Stanley Gleason and Manny Rosen. Horse shoe games will be played under the giant oak next door at Lacy Manor and cards will be played during the afternoon. Mr. Kortick and Roy Cuneo will be bartenders and Edward Lazzarini and John Cognetta, cooks. The latter and William Felix will be in charge of games and Larry Binsacca and Mr. Gleason are in charge of the table. Moran Myers and Charles Montague will be firemen and Ray Mason has the role of "court jester." Photographers will be Messrs. Gleason and Kortick.

PROCEEDS FROM the show, which is planned for the entire family, will go toward landscaping the front of the recently-built church sanctuary. Participating in the show are three mem-

San Francisco, of Narvelle Arant of Arant and Co., plastic products manufacturers, Sausalito.

She is the daughter of Mrs. Estelle G. Allured of San Francisco and the late Scott Allured. For the past five years she has been employed as secretary in the personnel department of Otis, McAllister and Co., San Francisco.

The single-ring wedding was performed by the Rev. Harry B. Schofield with organist Mark Smith playing the wedding music.

The bride wore an Oleg Cassini afternoon dress of ice blue sheer wool with small veiled hat adorned with French imported flowers the same shade as the dress. She carried a white orchid with lilies of the valley.

Her brother, William G. Allured of San Francisco, gave her in marriage. Best man was Aubrey MacDermott of Larkspur, partner in Arant and Co. Usher was Leslie Rubin of Sausalito.

The bridal party had a wedding dinner at International Inn prior to the couple's departure by plane for Mexico City.

They will reside in San Francisco.

Decorator Plans Arrangements For Antiques Show

Flower arrangements at the Seventh Annual Antique Show in Mill Valley's American Legion Hall, April 23 through 26, will be created by Mrs. Helen Van Cleave Park, noted interior decorator and flower arranger, according to Mrs. Philip T. Smith, chairman of the show.

Planned for the foyer is a dramatic arrangement to demonstrate the use of antique containers, and for the veranda, an American folk scene, using an antique wooden wheelbarrow and potted plants.

Mrs. Park will be available for conference during the four-day show, and visitors will be able to consult with her on the use of antiques in flower arranging and home decoration. Collectors will have her enthusiastic interest, as she herself is an avid collector in a variety of fields, including glass, buttons and early California art.

For the past four years Mrs. Park has been lecturing on interior decorating and home furnishing in the Home Economics Department at UC in Berkeley. She is also an associate of San Francisco decorator Delcena Bair, but Mrs. Park operates exclusively in Marin, where she has resided since 1937. For a number of years Mrs. Park was associated with the San Francisco Art Museum as a teacher of flower arrangement.

Hours for the show which features wares from 29 leading antique dealers from all over the West Coast will be daily from noon to 10 p.m. and Sunday from noon to 8 p.m.

PARTY GIVEN TO CELEBRATE TWO EVENTS

Rickey's Ranch Rafael was the setting for the dinner party Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Vireno of San Francisco gave on Sunday honoring their daughter, Mrs. Richard H. Cheda of Greenbrae, on her birthday and their son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. Lawrence Vireno of San Rafael, on their 19th wedding anniversary.

The guest list also included Mr. Cheda, the hosts' other daughter, Miss Esther Vireno of San Francisco, and their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Vireno Jr. of Corte Madera, and daughter, Linda. Mrs. Lawrence Vireno's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Berkowitz of Fairfax and her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Marcus, and John Beck of San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Cheda returned from a two weeks' vacation at Colorado Springs where they stayed at the Broadmoor Hotel.

LEGAL THEME PLANNED FOR FOCUS SHOW

"Hear Ye, Hear Ye, 'Tis Legal this Spring," to look like a girl."

Save the "relaxed look" for the judges in their long black robes and let women of all ages, arise in defense of the feminine, fashionable, flattering and fitted!

Fashion Focus issues this good news proclamation next Tuesday at Rickey's popular luncheon to honor the Lawyers' Wives Auxiliary of Marin. No. 1 case on their calendar is raising funds for the Legal Aid Society in which their husbands are vitally interested, and which offers competent attorneys to those in proven need when an emergency arises.

Sentenced for summer on Tuesday will be the colorful collection of around-the-clock fashions chosen especially for the show by Maryon Taylor of Ross.

For "circuit court," the swim, lunch, bridge circuit that is, swimsuits were never newsworthy, shirtmakers more sensational or fabrics more miraculous.

From 5 p.m. on, when "night court" holds forth, Maryon Taylor will introduce the most romantic of summer cottons for the misses, junior and half size figures that put you in the mood for a party before you've been invited.

Eight attractive Lawyers' Wives will take the stand to show that "It's Legal This Spring" to look like a girl, with hair smoothly coiffed by the new Beau K Salon in Kentfield with styles to stand up in court or around the pool.

Fashion Focus luncheon guests will be both judge and jury for the Maryon Taylor collection with luncheon open to the public served at 12:30 and the fashions at 1 p.m.

Gold Star Mothers Observe Anniversary

Bob's of Marin was the setting for the recent tenth anniversary dinner of the Marin Chapter of Gold Star Mothers.

Clusters of pale pink Bechtel cherry blossoms centered the table, where each place was marked by gold name favors and a pink camellia corsage.

Charter members of the organization who attended the affair were Henrietta von Staden, Grace Barry, Ethel Jordan, Sarah Allen, Estelle Bassett, Mrs. William S. Anderson and Mrs. Victor W. Jones.

Newer members present were Marie Westlund, Mrs. George T. Carpenter and Mrs. Henry R. Sanborn. After dinner Mrs. Jordan gave a brief talk on the work of the group, and humorous limericks composed to each member were read by Mrs. Jones.

The next meeting of the mothers will be held at the home of Mrs. Anderson in Novato on May 12 with Marie Westlund acting as hostess. Any Marin County mother who is eligible for membership in the organization is asked to contact the president, Mrs. Jordan.

Camp Fire Groups Are Planning Grand Council Fires In May

Camp Fire groups throughout the county have been busy fulfilling their rank requirements. These girls will be participating in Grand Council Fires, which are a yearly part of the Camp Fire program to publicly recognize the accomplishments of girls.

This year Council Fires have been scheduled throughout the county, changing a tradition of long standing, in order to better meet the needs of the growing number of Camp Fire groups in Marin. Southern Marin has already had its Grand Council Fire recently at Ruby Scott Auditorium, Mill Valley.

Larkspur-Corte Madera will hold theirs on May 1 at the Corte Madera Recreation Center; Kentfield - Greenbrae, scheduled for May 14 at the Redwood High School gym; San Rafael, May 15 at San Rafael High School, and District III, which includes San Anselmo, Fairfax and West Marin on May 22 at Samuel Taylor Park.

The Shuta-Ki-Ya and the Elu-Kani-Ka Camp Fire Groups of Greenbrae recently took part in preparations for the annual Pixie Playground Easter Egg hunt. The girls made bunny hats, dyed eggs and later returned to the Art and Garden Center to restore order after the party. Both groups presented the flag at the last meeting of the Greenbrae P-TA.

These projects enabled the groups to complete requirements for their Trailseeker rank.

Native Daughters Hear Report On Mill Dedication

A report on the dedication of Mill Valley's Old Mill as an historical landmark, and reinstatement of a former member were highlights of the recent meeting of Tamalpais Parlor, Native Daughters of the Golden West.

President Miss Betty Crowley conducted the meeting which was held in the Outdoor Art Clubhouse.

Mrs. John Stott, who has returned to Mill Valley after living two years in Colorado, was reinstated.

History and landmarks chairman Mrs. James Brunette reported on the recent dedication of the Old Mill. About 250 attended the services put on by the Marin Parlor of the NSGW and the NDGW. The plaque was presented to the city of Mill Valley as a historical landmark by grand president Mrs. Eileen Dismuke of Santa Barbara.

Refreshments were served by Mesdames Robert Campagna and Abrose Polacchi.

YWCA Show To Feature Teen Talent

It's "show time" this weekend, both Friday and Saturday nights, April 24 and 25, for talented teenagers. The Annual Y-Teen Talent Show takes place in the YWCA auditorium at 620 Sutter street, from 8 to 10:30 p.m.

"The Spirit of San Francisco" will be presented in three acts representing the past, present and future, with the script written by a group of Y-Teens headed by Roy Trumbull. The cast includes Sue Williams, Anna Quan, Leone McCormack and Fern Bennett.

The Annual Y-Teen Talent Show, besides offering teenagers an opportunity to perform, raises money to send representatives from Y-Teen Clubs to summer conference at Asilomar. All Y-Teen clubs in San Francisco, Marin County and North San Mateo County join in this benefit show, serving on the many committees as well as performing on stage.

Various acts now in rehearsal include a Comanche Indian War dance by Dee Haney of San Rafael High School, a Chinese Fan Dance by Cynthia Yam of Galileo High, Beethoven's Moonlight Sonata piano solo by Ivan Vegvary of Lowell High.

Pantomimes will be enacted by Penny Sutton and Anne Williams of Washington High School, and Barbara Houston and Judy Weir of Lowell. "The Gents" rock 'n roll band, featuring Charles Metoyu, Kelly Hearing, Lino Licudon and Emile Lacampagna, are offering their services for this benefit show.

Church Of Our Saviour Setting For Firstman-Engelhart Rites

The Church of Our Saviour in Mill Valley was the setting for the wedding Saturday afternoon of Karen Clements Engelhart of Mill Valley and Bruce Laurence Firstman of Pacific Grove, Calif.

For the single ring ceremony performed at 3:30 o'clock the church was decorated with white carnations and ferns. The Rev. Stephen R. Hammond officiated, assisted by the Rev. D. Murray Hammond. Relatives and close friends only attended.

The bride, who is the daughter of Col. Edward Carl Engelhart, USA (Ret.) of Corte Madera and Mrs. Schultz Engelhart of Mill Valley, was given in marriage by her father.

When Karen recited her vows, she was wearing a floor length gown of white silk satin fashioned on princess lines with V-neckline trimmed with seed pearls, and long sleeves coming to points over the wrists. Her fingertip veil of illusion fell from a Juliet cap edged with seed pearls, and she carried a bouquet of miniature white roses and bouvardia.

Her bridesmaid, August Chasin of San Francisco, wore a ballerina length gown of pale pink chiffon and a bandeau on her hair of velvet matching her dress. Her flowers were white carnations.

Best man for the bridegroom was Marwood Harris of Hayward, and escorting guests to their seats were Kenneth Lincoln and Donald Robbins of Palo Alto.

Mrs. Donald Fowler played the organ. Mrs. Engelhart attended her daughter's wedding in a street length light green dress and darker shade flowered hat with matching accessories. Her corsage was of pink carnations.

An Alice blue silk suit trimmed in white was the choice of the bridegroom's mother, who completed her costume with matching hat and navy blue accessories. Her corsage was of white carnations.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the Mill Valley home of Mr. and Mrs. F. Barreda Sherman, which was decorated with pink and white snapdragons and ferns. The young couple received their guests standing in front of the large classic mantelpiece.

On the bride's table stood the three tiered wedding cake adorned on top with fresh flowers. Karen cut the cake with the white satin ribbon decorated sword that her father had received from his father as a gift when he graduated from West Point.

When the newly married pair left for a honeymoon at an undisclosed destination, the bride was wearing a light blue silk linen suit with small brown and white hat and accessories, and a white carnation corsage.

On their return they will live in San Francisco.

Karen attended the Katharine Branson School, graduated from Tamalpais High School and attended the City College of San Francisco and San Francisco State College.

She is the granddaughter of Mrs. Julius Engelhart and the late Julius Engelhart of Richmond Hill, N.Y., and of the late Col. and Mrs. Theodore Schultz of St. Louis, Mo. She is a direct descendant of William and Susannah Boon Parks, founders of Boonsborough, Md.

The bridegroom is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Firstman of San Jose. He received his master's degree from Stanford University and is a candidate for the Ph. D. degree. He teaches biology at the City College of San Francisco.

Miss Kempf Is Wed In Home Rites

It was a private wedding in the home of her parents that Carmela Marie Kempf chose when she became the bride of Jay William Ruby Jr. on Saturday. A small reception was held afterwards and then the new Mr. and Mrs. Ruby left for Los Angeles where they will make their home.

Carmela, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rupert Kempf of Sausalito, wore a simple silk sheath dress in a natural shade with matching accessories for the 4 o'clock ceremony performed by Dr. McCray of Oakland, a friend of the bridegroom. Mr. Kempf gave his daughter away.

The bride's sister, Andrea, who wore a blue silk sheath with matching accessories, and Myron C. Dutton of Malibu Beach were the couple's only attendants.

Carmela graduated from the Dominican Convent Upper School and received her bachelor of arts degree from the University of California at Berkeley where she is a member of the Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority.

Jay is the only son of the senior Rubys of Chicago, Ill. He attended Wheaton College in Wheaton, Ill., before transferring to the University of Los Angeles where he is majoring in history.

Mrs. Ruby came from Chicago to be present for her son's wedding.

Vocational Nurses' League In Session

The sixth annual convention of the Licensed Vocational Nurses' League of California, Inc., is being held at Bakersfield Inn, Bakersfield, through Thursday.

The League has a per capita membership in the National Assn for Practical Nurse Education which was largely instrumental in obtaining licensure for the Vocational Nurse in California.

Attending from Marin County are Mrs. Gertrude Mirgon, San Rafael, president of the local district; Mrs. Clara Burkholder, San Rafael, member of the state board of directors, and Mrs. Mabel Kuhlken, San Rafael, second vice president of the state.

Mrs. Kuhlken is running for state president and Mrs. Burkholder is running for member of the board of directors.

High-Twelves Hold Banquet in Fairfax

The High-Twelves of Marin held their annual banquet at Buono Gusto restaurant in Fairfax recently, honoring past presidents of High Twelves and High Twelvettes. This was also charter night.

Glen Wentz, president of High-Twelves presided and he presented past presidents. Mrs. George Steele, president of High-Twelvettes, introduced past presidents of High-Twelvettes. C. R. Banfield was program chairman. An excellent musical program was presented. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hughes, formerly in light opera, included in their repertoire many selections from light opera.

MRS. C. F. CROSSLEY JR.

Mrs Crossley Is Winner Of High Award In Bridge

Members of the Marin Unit of the American Contract Bridge League gathered Sunday at Rickey's Rancho for bridge and dinner to honor Mrs. C. F. Crossley Jr. of Greenbrae who recently attained the highest achievement in duplicate bridge by earning the rank of life master.

Mrs. Crossley accumulated the final number of 300 master points to merit the coveted title at the recent Spring National Bridge Tournament in Seattle. She has the distinction of becoming the first woman life master in Marin County. Her husband, Dr. Crossley, current president of the Western Conference of the League, received the award in 1956.

A former honor student in journalism at the University of Illinois, Mrs. Crossley, mother of four children, has steadily climbed toward her goal in bridge since the family moved to Marin County from Salt Lake City in 1952. Shortly thereafter the Crossleys helped to form the first duplicate club in this area.

The Marin Unit, of which Dr. Crossley is chairman, was formed in 1954, at which time there were two American Contract Bridge League members. There are now 205 members and six acting League clubs in the county.

Included at Sunday's affair were members from various outlying duplicate clubs. Gifts of silver from the Unit to the honored guest were presented by J. C. Myers, Kentfield.

Preceding the dinner was a winner's game in which winners of League events for the last month were eligible to play. The regular master point game following the dinner

Mother Wants To Be Modern But Balks At Doctor's Advice

"I want to be modern," a mother writes. "But I'm afraid I heard a mental health doctor say we restrict our teen-agers' boy-girl interests too much. He said the reason there is no juvenile delinquency in Samoa is that teen-agers there make love without restraint. They've no need to break laws. He said American moral standards make young people feel too guilty. Modern parents should permit freedom, he concluded. Must I raise my girls this way? He's a doctor. He should know more than I do."

Please let me reassure you. I'm acquainted with that mental health doctor. He is not raising his own children that way. His wife sees to that. Her judgment is better than his.

We are fadists. We pick up wild, new theories quickly. I can remember the "companionate marriage" fad. Couples were supposed to live together for a time before marrying. The idea was presented by some fairly respectable specialists. A few misguided souls tried it out. They were rejected by their friends. Their consciences prevented them from being happy. They suffered. Before long the companionate marriage fad was dropped. It will be the same with the present fad for boy-girl freedom. But this time it will be teen-agers who get hurt.

Teach your girls to seek what is right and avoid what is wrong. Raise them in a good church. Help them learn to live happily within our approved moral framework. Our standards don't change as fast as you might think. Give your girls love, support and guidance. Give them the restriction they need. Don't try to be "modern." Use your common sense. You're more of it than that doctor.

Marinites Pay Most Taxes By Deadline

Marin County taxpayers paid all but 3.36 per cent of the $14,475,527 total tax bill for the 1958-59 year by the April 10 deadline, County Tax Collector M. F. Donohue announced today.

Only $486,922 remained unpaid by the deadline. This is better than the $504,035 delinquency at the same time last year.

Collection of delinquent taxes, formerly performed by the county auditor, has been assigned to the tax collector this year and henceforth.

The tax collector-treasurer's office has moved across the hall to the space formerly occupied by Auditor Leon A. deLisle. From habit acquired through the years, many taxpayers still go to the old office, now occupied by Assessor Bert W. Broemmel, Donohue explained. The tax collector's office is now

State Vote On FEPC Act Sought

SACRAMENTO (P)—A retired San Francisco investment broker wants the people of California to vote on the state's new Fair Employment Practices Act.

Gov. Edmund G. Brown signed the FEPC bill into law Thursday. Brown made the measure banning job discrimination because of race, religion or ancestry the top item on his legislative program.

The attorney general's office reported yesterday that J. Rupert Mason has requested a title for a referendum to be put on the ballot in November, 1960.

Mason said a petition for referendum would be handled by Joseph Robinson of San Francisco, head of the state's largest petition-circulating firm.

Mason must collect 262,789 signatures by Sept. 19 to put the referendum measure on the 1960 ballot. If he fails, the law goes into effect Sept. 19.

Grace Expecting Again, Paris Paper Reports

PARIS (UPI)—Princess Grace of Monaco is expecting a third child, a Paris newspaper claimed today.

The daily Paris Journal said the former Grace Kelly of Hollywood and Philadelphia "broke the news confidentially and very timidly to a lady friend in Paris."

There was no official confirmation of the report here, where Grace and her husband Prince Rainier are currently visiting his mother, Princess Charlotte.

Via Freitas Parkway to Las Gailinas to Oleander Drive. You are cordially invited to visit our charming 3 bedroom, 2 bath home with family room in one of Marin's finest residential areas. The builder of this home has new homes in area and we ask you to compare them with this 2 year old home — its large level lot and delightful landscaping in lawn, flowers, and shrubs, the used brick walls, the louvered fences and seclusion add to the great charm of this property. Please give us the pleasure of showing you this better than new home. Excellent financing.

BERNARD MAYBECK
DESIGN $49,500

One of the most famous and revered architects of our generation designed and constructed this beautiful home in "old" Ross. Perfectly situated on an oak covered, one acre setting, it takes utmost advantage of truly wonderful mountain and valley vistas. Recent articles and pictures of this appealing, never-to-be-duplicated home and its designer appeared in Life-Time and the Bonanza section of the S.F. Chronicle. This and other works of Bernard Maybeck are presently on display at the S.F. Legion of Honor and are to be shown in all major cities of the United States. Heavy timbered construction, barn shake exterior, many hand carved and specially cut rafters and posts, Swiss chalet type overhangs, are blended in perfect harmony. Beautiful living room, tremendous social hall, 2 huge stone fireplaces, 4 bedrooms, 3 baths. Property has lovely patio, charming walks and a detached carriage house. Truly a "special" home for that discriminating buyer who will become its enchanted owner.

Army Service Awards Given
Six Marines

Six of seven women receiving Department of the Army service emblems last week from
Maj. Gen. E. J. McGaw, 6th Region Army Air Defense commander, were Marine residents.

The women, civil service employees at Ft. Baker headquarters of the regional Air Defense Command, are among the first to be awarded length of service emblems in a new Army program honoring sustained superior service of civilian employees for periods of 10 or more years.

Highest in point of years completed was Mrs. Alice P.
Hindley of Ft. Baker, with 23 years. Other Marine residents were:

Mrs. T. N. Diesthorst, 23
Midway avenue, Mill Valley;
Mrs. Grace H. Dyer, 1125 Sir
Francis Drake boulevard, Ross;
Mrs. Hermina F. Lee, 383
Woodside avenue, Mill Valley;
Mrs. Helen Miskinin, Ft. Barry;
Mrs. Carrie L. Stone, 45 Diane lane, Larkspur.

Only non-Marinite was Mrs.
Marion C. Valentine of San Francisco.

in will hold a spring wild flower field trip Saturday under direction of Mr. and Mrs.
Harold Parent and Mr. and Mrs. John Nahapiet of Mill Valley.

The field trip, open to members and friends of the society, will get under way at 10 a.m.
from the Old Mill in Mill Valley. Participants should take their lunches and cameras and wear comfortable shoes, said the leaders.

The trip will include a drive up Mt. Tamalpais, and drives to Bolinas Mesa via the Alpine Lake road and to Five Brooks, the society's fall barbecue grounds.

"Salome," the one-act opera by Richard Strauss, was first performed in Dresden in 1905.
It is based on the Oscar Wilde play.

New York To Again Become TV Capital

NEW YORK (AP)—About a year ago the television networks appeared intent on making Hollywood the capital of TV entertainment. Now the tide appears to be turning back to New York.

The list of filmed Westerns and comedies originating in Hollywood is long. But with a few exceptions the big, widely discussed programs of quality have continued to come from New York. Next season New York will firmly resume its position as the nation's television capital.

MANY REASONS
The reasons are numerous.
Positively it is not because Hollywood technicians and facilities are inferior to those in New York.

There have been some outstanding shows from Hollywood. Fred Astaire's show undoubtedly was the best single song and dance program visible on the home screen.
"Playhouse 90" has offered many fine dramas from the West Coast.

At the same time there have been distressing failures.

distinguished drama one can expect to see originating from Hollywood next season will be on "Playhouse 90"—and there are rumors that some of its shows will come from New York.

FROM NEW YORK
"Biography," the 90-minute series which will alternate weekly on CBS-TV with "Playhouse 90," will originate in New York. George Schaefer has been signed to direct and produce six shows here for "Hall of Fame." Nearly all of "The Fabulous Forty" series of music, comedy and drama on NBS-TV will be produced here.

Certainly New York has vast resources of acting talent.
With the innovation of tape, it's possible to draw on the casts of Broadway hits to do TV shows in free time—as in "For Whom The Bell Tolls."

There is another reason for the ascendancy of New York, however. This is the business center of television. Sponsors make their TV investments through agencies and networks here, and they like to be close to the scene of production on big and expensive specials.

Godfrey Has Tumor:
'Maybe I'll Be Lucky'

NEW YORK (AP)—"I've had a helluva lot of luck in my time, probably more than any one person has a right to deserve, and maybe I'll be lucky again."

That was television star Arthur Godfrey's comment as he announced he will enter a New York hospital later this week for examination of a chest tumor.

"It's probably just a benign tumor," Godfrey added. "I have at least three good omens.

I feel good, my weight hasn't gone down, and my appetite's fine." He is 55.

Godfrey said he had X-rays taken last Thursday, after suffering from chest pains. He said the X-rays showed up the tumor.

He will complete his daytime radio and TV shows through Friday. No replacement for him was announced.

Edward Johnson Dies At 80
After Long Career With 'Met'

GUELPH, Ont. (AP)—Edward Johnson, who overrode parental objections to a musical career and won world fame as a tenor and as general manager of the Metropolitan Opera, died last night.

The 80-year-old star of stage and management collapsed while walking to his seat for the opening performance of the Canadian National Ballet here in his home city. He died a half hour later of coronary thrombosis.

Johnson will be buried in this southern Ontario city where he started as a choir boy. Funeral arrangements awaited the arrival from London of his only daughter, Mrs.
George Drew, wife of Canada's high commissioner to Britain.

A lyric tenor, Johnson won recognition from such greats as Caruso and John McCormack as one of the world's fine-est. His career as an opera singer ran for 23 years and on three continents.

He became general manager of the Metropolitan two months after his retirement from the stage in 1935, holding the post until his retirement in 1950.
He kept the venerable house going through depression and war. His championship of Brazil President

To Operate On TV

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil (AP)
—Brazil's President Juscelino Kubitschek, a surgeon before he took to politics, will go on TV May 14 to perform a gall bladder operation.

Kubitschek and Dr. Darcy Monteiro will operate on Carlos Freas, master of ceremonies on the Brazilian program
"This Is Your Life."

Durante, Pal
Back Together

LAS VEGAS (AP)—Jimmy
Durante and his longtime sidekick, Eddie Jackson, have made up and will open at a local hotel tonight "just like old times."

Durante and Jackson, partners for 43 years, split up last October when Jackson charged Durante gave him the cold shoulder. But Durante said his old hoofing buddy just "up and walked out on me."

"Eddie came over to my Beverly Hills shack last Friday and said he had made a mistake," the Schnozzola said here. "He said he was sorry.
So I told him to forget it. We'll open tonight just like old times."

"When a man is big enough to admit he made a mistake, the other fellow has to be big enough to forgive it," said Durante.
